Midterm deficiencies have been delivered and I have been informed that you have received a deficiency in one or more of your courses. It is important for you to talk to someone about your classes, as your advisor or instructor are likely more aware of all of the implications of any decision you might make. We are here to help!

Also, please consider the following list of people/places available on campus who are ready to assist or advise you in your academic and personal goals:

- Academic Support, 701.777.2117, 2891 2nd Ave., North, McCannel Hall, Room 180
- American Indian Student Services, 701.777.4291, 315 Princeton Street
- Career Services, 701.777.3904, McCannel Hall, Room 280
- Counseling Center, 701.777.2127, 2891 2nd Ave., North, McCannel Hall, Room 200
- Disability Services for Students, 701.777.2117, 2891 2nd Ave. North, McCannel Hall, Room 190
- Era Bell Thompson Cultural Center, 701.777.4259, 2901 University Ave., 3rd Floor, Memorial Union, Room 314
- TRIO/Student Support Services, 701.777.6359, 2891 2nd Ave. North, McCannel Hall, Third Floor
- UND Math Learning Center, 701.777.6359, Witmer Hall, Room 310
- Writing Center, 701.777.2795, 276 Centennial Drive, Merrifield Hall, Room 12

Please schedule an appointment with me so that we can discuss your progress in this course. This is especially important if you are considering withdrawing from the course, as it may impact your program of study. If you are receiving financial aid, it is also imperative that you speak with somebody in One-Stop Student Services (701.777.1234) to see how dropping this course may affect your financial aid.

For information on the last day to withdraw from a full-term course, please click here to view the UND Academic Calendar.