You are officially a UND student! Now what?

1. READ PAGE 3 OF YOUR I-20!
   - The rules on that page let you know what you need to do (or not do) to maintain your status.
   - You are responsible for knowing those rules and following them.

2. Make plans to attend orientation
   - See the International Center’s website for orientation dates and information
   - Orientation will teach you more about being a UND student as well as providing further information about what you need to do to maintain your F-1 status at UND

3. AFTER you arrive in Grand Forks, request your SEVIS record be registered and activated
   - F-1 students must register in SEVIS each semester.
   - Your first semester, you will register by completing the form here: https://und.qualtrics.com/jfe/form/SV_blpLy1bGdoFCymp.
   - Following semester you will register just by being fully-enrolled in classes.
   - SEVIS registration is separate from course registration

4. Make sure you are registered for classes!
   - When you were first admitted to UND you received a registration checklist. If you follow the steps on that checklist, you will be able to register for classes.
   - If you are having difficulties, consult an academic advisor. You received a list of advisor contacts when you were admitted, you can also go to http://und.edu/student-affairs/academic-support/index.cfm for more information.
   - If you paid your deposit early, you may have your schedule built for you.
   - REMEMBER – during fall and spring semesters you MUST be enrolled in at least 12 credit hours if you are undergraduate and 9 if you are graduate. Enrollment in fewer credits without prior authorization is a violation of status.
