

THINGS TO DO IN: NORWAY

Northern Lights

Tromsø

Peak time is between 11 p.m. and 2 a.m. Statistically, springtime (March/April) and autumn (September/October) has the highest level of aurora activity. However, you will see it in November, December, January and February as well.

Information

Geirangerfjord

Fjord

The Geirangerfjord is often considered the jewel in Norway's crown of fjords. Surrounded by majestic mountain peaks, 800-meter-high cliffs and cascading waterfalls.

Information

Trolltunga

Vestland county

The famous rock formation is known for its dramatic and breathtaking appearance. It juts horizontally from a mountain about 700 meters above Lake Ringedalsvatnet. It is a popular hiking destination, attracting adventurers and nature enthusiasts worldwide.

Information

THINGS TO DO IN: NORWAY

Experience Bergen city center

Bergen

Bryggen features colorful wooden houses on the old wharf, once a center of the Hanseatic League's trading empire. The Fløibanen Funicular goes up Fløyen Mountain for panoramic views and hiking trails.

Information

The Royal Palace

Oslo

It is where the daily work of the monarchy is conducted and where the King and Queen live. It is where the King presides over the Council of State, grants audiences and holds official dinners.

Information

Akershus Fortress

Oslo

The Fortress has a special position as a national monument due to its location in the heart of the capital and its rich history connected to Crown and State.

Information