

Theatre Arts

You belong at the University of North Dakota Department of Theatre Arts! UND Theatre Arts is dedicated to our students, and making sure that a broad and detailed education prepares students for success.

A diversified faculty are personally involved in and teach the various areas of the theatre arts, i.e., playwriting, acting, voice, movement, directing, history, dramatic literature, technical theatre, costuming, set design, lighting, and make-up. The Department of Theatre Arts and its B.A. and pre-professional B.F.A. degrees in Theatre Arts (acting and design) are accredited by the National Association of Schools of Theatre. The curriculum assures a well-rounded experience in the chosen discipline and the other fine arts.

ACTING :: DIRECTING :: DESIGN :: MUSICAL THEATRE :: DANCE :: STAGE MANAGEMENT :: LIGHTING :: COSTUMING

Degrees Offered . . .

- Bachelor of Arts in Theatre
- Bachelor of Fine Arts in Theatre
- Master of Arts
- Minor in Dance

Areas of Study . . .

- | | |
|-------------------|--------------------|
| • Performance | • Stage Management |
| • Directing | • Lighting Design |
| • Dance | • Costume Design |
| • Musical Theatre | • Technical Design |

Getting In . . .

- No pre-curriculum for the B.A. Program
- Students must maintain a 2.2 GPA
- B.F.A. candidates audition sophomore year
- B.F.A. candidates must have a 2.5 GPA

It's a Fact . . .

- Average class size for courses in the major is 6-18
- Theatre Arts is accredited through the National Association of Schools of Theatre
- 365-seat proscenium theatre and 150 seat lab theatre
- Design labs and rehearsal rooms
- Dance minor is offered through the department
- Student-directed and designed productions appear, as do student-written shows
- All UND students are welcome to participate in productions
- UND Theatre maintains a low student:faculty ratio, ensuring you are a name, not a number
- UND Theatre ensures opportunities for students to create, even as a freshman
- UND Theatre employs a liberal arts philosophy, ensuring well rounded and critically thinking graduates
- UND Theatre graduates go on to work in all areas of arts and entertainment

Scholarships . . .

- Up to $1000 per year available, by application
- Visit us online at theatre.und.edu/scholarships.htm

Live out Loud at UND . . .

UND Department of Theatre Arts prepares students for success in more careers than you may imagine. Of course, there are many UND students who go on to find work as performers, directors and designers in all varieties of theatre. But, people with degrees in theatre are found in all walks of life.

Theatre Arts at UND prepares students for careers in theatre and a host of other areas with its strong liberal arts tradition. The BFA in Performance honors the liberal arts while providing a rigorous curriculum in acting styles, dialect, and movement for the actor. Design students have regularly worked in the lab theatre and completed a main stage show as a senior project. All students take a common core of classes before electing an area of interest.

Students who want to study a little of everything in theatre may select from a broad array of classes in theatre history, dramatic literature, directing, and playwriting.

Please explore the possibilities UND Theatre Arts offers you and sign up for the most exciting time of your life.

For more information,
contact us at:

UND Department of Theatre Arts
5 Chandler Hall
3280 Davis Dr, Stop 8136
Grand Forks, ND 58202

701-777-3446

theatre.und.edu

