CHAPTER 2
CRITERION 1- MISSION .......................................27
  Core Component 1.A: The institution’s mission is broadly understood within the institution and guides its operations..........29
    1.A.1: The mission statement is developed through a process suited to the nature and culture of the institution and is adopted by the governing board ..........33
    1.A.2: The institution’s academic programs, student support services, and enrollment profile are consistent with its stated mission .........................34
    1.A.3: The institution’s planning and budgeting priorities align with and support the mission .................................................36
  Core Component 1.B: The mission is articulated publicly.........................................................37
    1.B.1: The institution clearly defines its mission through one or more public documents, such as statements of purpose, vision, values, goals, plans or institutional priorities .........................................................37
    1.B.2: The documents are current and explain the extent of the institution’s emphasis on the various aspects of its mission, such as instruction, scholarship, research, application of research, creative works, clinical service, public service, economic development, and religious or cultural purpose .............................................38
    1.B.3: The documents identify the nature and scope of the higher education programs and services the institution provides and whom these activities serve ............................................38
  Core Component 1.C: The institution understands the relationship between its mission and the diversity of U.S. society.........39
    1.C.1: The institution addresses its role in a multicultural society ........................................40
    1.C.2: The institution’s processes and activities reflect attention to human diversity as appropriate within its mission and for the constituencies it serves ........................................41
  Core Component 1.D: The institution’s mission demonstrates commitment to the public good ........................................43
    1.D.1: Actions and decisions reflect an understanding that in its educational role the institution serves the public, not solely the institution, and thus entails a public obligation ........................................43
    1.D.2: The institution’s educational responsibilities take primacy over other purposes, such as generating financial returns for investors, contributing to a related or parent organization, or supporting external interests ........................................45
CRITERION 2 - INTEGRITY: ETHICAL AND RESPONSIBLE CONDUCT ....... 53

Core Component 2.A: The institution operates with integrity in its financial, academic, personnel and auxiliary functions; it establishes and follows fair and ethical policies and processes for its governing board, administration, faculty and staff.........................55

Core Component 2.B: The institution presents itself clearly and completely to its students and to the public with regard to its programs, requirements, costs to students, faculty and staff, control and accreditation relationships ..........................................................62

Core Component 2.C: The governing board of the institution is sufficiently autonomous to make decisions in the best interest of the institution and to assure its integrity.............68

2.C.1: The governing board’s deliberations reflect priorities to preserve and enhance the institution...........................................................70

2.C.2: The governing board reviews and considers the reasonable and relevant interests of the institution’s internal and external constituencies during its decision-making deliberations .................................................73

2.C.3: The governing board preserves its independence from undue influence on the part of donors, elected officials, ownership interests, or other external parties when such influence would not be in the best interest of the institution ..............................................................76

Core Component 2.D: The institution is committed to freedom of expression and the pursuit of truth in teaching and learning..........79

Core Component 2.E: The institution ensures that faculty, students, and staff acquire, discover, and apply knowledge responsibly....81

2.E.1: The institution provides effective oversight and support services to ensure the integrity of research and scholarly practice conducted by its faculty, staff, and students.........................................................81

2.E.2: Students are offered guidance in the ethical use of information resources........83

2.E.3: The institution has and enforces policies on academic honesty and integrity..........................................................85

CHAPTER 4
CRITERION 3 - TEACHING AND LEARNING: QUALITY, RESOURCES, AND SUPPORT ........................................... 91

Core Component 3.A: The institution’s degree programs are appropriate to higher education .........................................................93

3.A.1: Courses and programs are current and require levels of performance by students appropriate to the degree or certificate awarded.................................................................93

3.A.2: The institution articulates and differentiates learning goals for its undergraduate, graduate, post-baccalaureate, postgraduate, and certificate programs .........97
3.A.3: The institution’s program quality and learning goals are consistent across all modes of delivery and all locations ........................................... 99

Core Component 3.B: The institution demonstrates that the exercise of intellectual inquiry and the acquisition, application, and integration of broad learning and skills are integral to its educational programs ........................ 106

3.B.1: The general education program is appropriate to the mission, educational offerings, and degree levels of the institution .................................................. 106

3.B.2: The institution articulates the purposes, content, and intended learning outcomes of its undergraduate general education requirements. The program of general education is grounded in a philosophy or framework developed by the institution or adopted from an established framework. It imparts broad knowledge and intellectual concepts to students and develops skills and attitudes that the institution believes every college-educated person should possess ........................................... 109

3.B.3: Every degree program offered by the institution engages students in collecting, analyzing, and communicating information; in mastering modes of inquiry or creative work; and in developing skills adaptable to changing environments .............................................. 113

3.B.4: The education offered by the institution recognizes the human and cultural diversity of the world in which students live and work ............................................................... 118

3.B.5: The faculty and students contribute to scholarship, creative work, and the discovery of knowledge to the extent appropriate to their programs and the institution’s mission .............................................. 120

Core Component 3.C: The institution has the faculty and staff needed for effective, high-quality programs and student services .................................................. 124

3.C.1: The institution has sufficient numbers and continuity of faculty members to carry out both the classroom and the nonclassroom roles of faculty, including oversight of the curriculum and expectations for student performance; establishment of academic credentials for instructional staff; and involvement in assessment of student learning .............................................................. 124

3.C.2: All instructors are appropriately credentialed, including those in dual credit, contractual, and consortial programs .................................................. 127

3.C.3: Instructors are evaluated regularly in accordance with established institutional policies and procedures .................................................. 128

3.C.4: The institution has processes and resources for assuring that instructors are current in their disciplines and adept in their teaching roles; it supports their professional development .............................................. 129

3.C.5: Instructors are accessible for student inquiry .......................................................... 136

3.C.6: Staff members providing student support services, such as tutoring, financial aid advising, academic advising, and co-curricular activities, are appropriately qualified, trained, and supported in their professional development .............................................. 138
