SECTION 1: GENERAL UNIVERSITY POLICIES

1-32 CRIMINAL, DISCIPLINARY BACKGROUND CHECK AT ADMISSION TO UND

Students making application to the University of North Dakota are asked about their criminal history and any disciplinary history at other colleges and universities. If an applicant answers in the affirmative to these questions, s/he will be asked to provide additional information. The risk posed to the community by the applicant is considered by campus stakeholders before an admission decision is made. Certain conditions may be required of those students who are admitted under this process.

An affirmative response does not automatically deny admission. Some programs - undergraduate, graduate, and professional - may have more stringent requirements. See State Board Policy 511.
