SECTION 2: CONDUCT REGULATIONS AND PROCEDURES

2-1 STUDENT RIGHTS

Students are members of the academic community and citizens of the larger society, thus students neither lose the rights nor escape the responsibilities of citizenship. In all Meetings and Hearings regarding a student’s behavior, students must be treated fairly. Students have the following minimum rights:

1. to be notified of the charges and the possible consequences that may result;
2. to be heard by a fair and impartial decision maker;
3. to know the identity of those who made the complaint;
4. to be notified in writing of any sanctions or actions which have been assessed; and
5. to be notified in writing of the appeal process.

REVISION RECORD:
August 1, 2012 - Published