Fall 2015

So, you are assigned as an academic advisor. Now what?

New Faculty Academic Advisor and Professional Academic Advisor Workshop Part I
Thursday, September 10 at 9:30 – 11:00 a.m. (Memorial Union, Presidents Room) and repeated on Monday, September 14 at 9:00-10:30 a.m. (Memorial Union, Badlands Room)

- Information will include an introduction to Essential Studies, UND’s program in general education. Online resources such as the UND academic catalog and the four-year plans will be covered. Resources available through National Academic Advising Association (NACADA) will be highlighted. Academic advisor resources provided by the Student Success Center will be covered in-depth. Using professional academic advisors from across campus as a resource will be included with a handout provided of these key individuals. Additionally, using Starfish and the My Planner application will be demonstrated. Lastly, the workshop with close with time for Q&A.

Using My Planner and Starfish: What you, as an advisor, need to know
Faculty Academic Advisor and Professional Academic Advisor Information Session
Tuesday, Sept. 29 at 2:00 – 3:00 p.m. and repeated Wednesday, Sept. 30 at 9:00 – 10:00 a.m. Memorial Union, Lecture Bowl

- Topics include: Understanding and effectively using the My Planner application in Campus Connection presented by the Registrar’s Office and the Student Success Center. Also, using Starfish to enhance connection with students (reaching out to students in need, recognizing students doing well, progress surveys, etc.) will be presented by the Student Success Center.

Veteran & Non-traditional students: How to meet their unique needs
Faculty Academic Advisor and Professional Academic Advisor Development and Education Session
Thursday, Oct. 22 at 9:30 – 10:30 a.m. | Memorial Union, Lecture Bowl

- This is an opportunity to learn, through a presentation and panel, some of the specific and unique needs of veteran and non-traditional students on campus.
Now that you’ve been advising students...let’s talk about it!

New Faculty Academic Advisor and Professional Academic Advisor Workshop Part II

Wednesday, Jan. 27 at 2:00 – 3:30 p.m. and repeated Thursday, Jan. 28 at 9:30 – 11:00 a.m.
Memorial Union, Presidents Room

- Information will include a continued conversation on Essential Studies, UND's program in general education. Online resources such as the UND academic catalog and the four-year plans will be reviewed. Academic advisor resources provided by the Student Success Center will be highlighted. Additionally, having difficult conversations with students, working with students on academic probation, and the importance of proper documentation in academic advising will be covered in depth. Lastly, effectively using Starfish and the My Planner application in academic advising will be reviewed.

Career Development: How academic advising plays a role

Faculty Academic Advisor and Professional Academic Advisor Development and Education Session

Thursday, Feb. 11 at 9:30 – 10:30 a.m. | Memorial Union, Lecture Bowl

- Students want more than course selection – this presentation and discussion will cover the role of career development in academic advising.

Refresher on Starfish, One-Stop, and Satisfactory Academic Progress (SAP)

Faculty Academic Advisor and Professional Academic Advisor Information Session

Tuesday, March 8 at 2:00 – 3:00 p.m. and repeated Wednesday, March 9 at 9:00 – 10:00 a.m.
Memorial Union, Lecture Bowl

- Topics include: Starfish revisited by the Student Success Center, updates and announcements from One-Stop Student Services, and the details every academic advisor needs to know for the Satisfactory Academic Progress (SAP) process from the Student Financial Aid office.