I. CALL TO ORDER
Chair Andert called the meeting of the Elections Committee on 3/6/15 to order at 3:05 PM.

II. REPORTS
Chair
Chair Andert reported that the first debate on March 12 was going to be cancelled.

Other
No report.

III. OLD BUSINESS
No old business.

IV. NEW BUSINESS
A. Debates
The committee discussed other optional debate dates. Dates decided on were March 26 in the Loading Dock, March 31 on the Union’s main floor, and April 7 in the Loading Dock. The possibility of recording the debates was also discussed. They also determined that they would order pizza once the debates started. This was done last year as well. Additionally, they decided to get scanners so they could scan students’ IDs when they attended the debate.

B. Advertising

Chair Andert showed the committee the elections posters that were approved, and said that they should start advertising next week. There would be T-stands in Gamble Hall, and advertising in the dining centers and the Union had been approved. They still needed approval for the dorms, the Chester Fritz Library, and the Wellness Center. The committee also suggested that they advertise on different groups’ Facebook pages. They also determined that flyers announcing the debates should be posted and handed out before the debate.

V. ANNOUNCEMENTS/PUBLIC COMMENT

Elections Committee would not meet on 3/13/15. The next meeting would be held on 3/23/15 at 3:30 pm.

VI. ADJOURNMENT

Chair Andert adjourned the 3/6/15 meeting at 3:45 PM.

RESPECTFULLY SUBMITTED

Blake Andert
