Confidentiality Statement

All dealings with residents should remain confidential. Resident Managers should show respect for the rights of residents, colleagues and supervisors at all times. Sensitive information must be submitted or shared with supervisors in a timely manner. Colleagues will receive information when a “need to know” situation exists. Need to know situations will be determined by your supervisors.

Residents have the opportunity to discuss situations and incidents with other residents, however, staff members are not permitted this privilege. Student’s records, with the exception of directory information are required to be kept confidential. Information about hearings and violations are not to be disclosed by the Housing staff members.

Situations that may arise concerning staff members are also confidential. Disciplinary or probationary actions or discussions are the responsibility of the staff member, the Apartment Community Center Coordinator and the Assistant Director – Apartment Communities to work through, not that of the entire staff.

Confidentiality is applicable in all areas of your position and also when you are not in the work context. Whether you are in your area with other residents, working at the Apartment Community Center, with fellow staff members, or off campus or off duty staff need to keep certain information confidential in order for our community to function properly. All residents have the right to have their situations handled professionally and confidentially at all times by apartment staff members.
