Attention Walsh and Bek Residents

There have been a number of network outages in the last few months that have been caused by incorrectly connecting network devices.

It is important that you never plug both ends of one network cable into the switch in your room. Plugging cables in incorrectly will cause network down time for multiple buildings on campus.

If you have any questions, please contact the ResNet office at 7-3424.