You are invited to attend

Let’s Do Lunch!
A Luncheon in Honor of Women

Wednesday, April 27, 2011
11:00 a.m. - 1:00 p.m.*
Memorial Union
River Valley Room

*Attendees can go to one or both events, lunch is available for the first 100 who R.S.V.P.

Awards Ceremony and Workplace Issues Presentation
11:00 a.m. - Noon

In the first hour, the recipient of the PAC-W Book Award—Dr. Sandra Donaldson and the 2010 Women Studies Essay Contest winners will be honored. A short presentation will follow on preliminary findings from the most recent PAC-W sponsored Campus Climate Survey.

Do Not Take Your Rights for Granted; Remembering the Blaze that Woke the Nation 100 Years Ago
Noon - 1:00 p.m.

Performance Piece and Informational Lecture by Kathy Coudle-King

One hundred and forty six people-most of them young, female and locked in the building perished in the Triangle Shirtwaist Factory Fire. Their deaths sparked legislation that we often take for granted but should know about and protect.

Rose Freedman (left) who died on Thursday, February 22, 2001 was the last remaining survivor of the Triangle Fire.

Complimentary Lunch for First 100 Attendees who R.S.V.P.
To take part in this FREE lunch, please contact Dorothy Jerik at the UND Dept. of Criminal Justice at 777-2066 no later than Monday, April 18, 2011.

This event is sponsored by the UND President’s Advisory Council on Women (PAC-W)