

NUTRITION & FOODSERVICE PROFESSIONAL TRAINING PROGRAM

PATHWAY II

What do I need to know to get registered?

You are registering for Pathway II. This means that you have graduated from a two-year, four-year or greater, college degree in foodservice management, nutrition, culinary arts, or hotel-restaurant management. Transcript requirements must include a minimum of one course in nutrition and two courses in foodservice management. Most of the time, students need one, two or three of the courses offered here to complete the requirements for this Pathway. To find out what course(s) you may need and if you qualify for this pathway, please visit ANFP's website: <https://www.cbdmonline.org/get-certified/eligibility> or call ANFP at 1-800-323-1908. Be sure you meet the requirements prior to registering for the course.

Getting registered in Four Easy Steps:

Step One: Meet the Course Participation Requirements

In order to enroll in the Nutrition & Foodservice Professional Training Program, you must:

- Have graduated from a two-year, four-year or greater, college degree in foodservice management, nutrition, culinary arts, or hotel-restaurant management. Transcript requirements must include a minimum of one course in nutrition and two courses in foodservice management. Most of the time, students need one, two or three of the courses offered here to complete the requirements for this Pathway. Be sure to verify your previous courses and requirements with ANFP prior to registering.

DIETARY MANAGERS TRAINING PROGRAM

- Complete all course requirements within the allotted timeframe.
- Upon successful completion you will be awarded a transcript from the University of North Dakota. You will need to submit this plus your transcript from the program in which you previously graduated from to ANFP to sit for the National Credentialing Exam.

Step Three: Register for Course and Purchase Textbooks

- Determine the coursework required to complete your exam eligibility requirements under Pathway II. You can do this by:
  - » Personally reviewing your transcript(s) to see if you have one nutrition course and two foodservice management courses, or
  - » Submitting your transcripts to ANFP for review for verification of any additional coursework you are required to take. Transcripts with your question and contact information may be emailed to: info@anfponline.org
  - » ANFP is the final authority on the determination of required coursework and transcript review.
- After determining which course(s) are needed, please select the course from below and register online for each course selected.
- There are no refunds after registering for the course(s).
- Purchase the required textbooks at the same time as enrolling in the course.
- To purchase textbooks, follow this link and the directions found on the ANFP Website: <https://www.anfponline.org/education/students>
- When you go to register, if you are a new customer you will need to create a profile with your personal information and to create a password. You will need a valid email.

Step Four: Application & Participation Requirements

It is very important that each student personally registers for their own course, so UND obtains the correct contact information and email. UND cannot be responsible for information that is unable to be delivered due to incorrect email addresses.

Before registering for this course, I verify that I have read and understand the following:

- Students must order textbooks immediately after registering.
- Students must complete their own work with honesty and integrity. Copying another student's work, or work not exhibiting these qualities is defined as scholastic dishonesty. Scholastic dishonesty may result in dismissal from the course.
- All parties understand there are no refunds allowed once registered for the course.
