SPEND YOUR SUMMER IN ENGLAND

May 27 - June 27, 2019
Open to All Majors!

Who: Students in any major

What: 3 credit Interdisciplinary Health Elective “Dynamic Integration: Health Issues” — Societal and global health issues are critically examined for the impact on individuals and families, health care providers, and society as a whole. Meets UND Essential Studies Social Science requirement.

When: 4 weeks, May 27 - June 27, 2019

Where: Live and study in the village of Harlaxton at the Manor House of Harlaxton College

How: Learn how to apply at www.und.edu/studyabroad, stop by the Study Abroad office in Memorial Union room 261, or call 701-777-4231

Cost: Estimated cost of $5,300 for tuition, housing and weekly field trips (does not include flight to/from England)

Faculty: CNPD Dean, Dr. Gayle Roux, and Dr. Judith Halstead, Executive Director of the National League of Nursing Commission for Nursing Education, will be instructors for the course

Questions: Contact Dr. Roux at gayle.roux@und.edu