REQUEST TO RESTRICT DIRECTORY INFORMATION THE UNIVERSITY OF NORTH DAKOTA – OFFICE OF THE REGISTRAR

| | Please Print: Last Name | First Name | Middle Name |
|--|---|--|--|
| Excerpted below are portions of Section 8, Student Records, from the Code of Student Life: 8-1 INTRODUCTION Student records maintained by the University fall into two general categories – directory information and educative cords. 8-2 DIRECTORY INFORMATION Directory information is information concerning a student which may be released publicly. It includes the follow name (all names on record); address (all addresses on record); e-mail address (all electronic addresses on record); phone number (all phone numbers on record); height, weight and photos of athletic team members; date of birth; in field of study (all declared majors); minor field of study (all declared minors); class level; dates of attendance; enroll status; names of previous institutions attended; participation in officially recognized activities and sports; honors/av received and degrees earned (all degrees earned); date degree earned (dates of all degrees earned); and photogra video, or electronic images of students taken and maintained by the institution. Students have the right to request that directory information not be made public by notifying the Office of the Regis In order to effectively suppress release of directory information, students must restrict their directory information by the tenth day of the term and not reverse that restriction during the term. Students may reverse existing directricities by submitting a written request to the Office of the Registrar. As you consider restricting your directory information from the public, please remember that when you rest the release of your directory information, NO ONE (regardless of relationship, e.g., spouse, parent, other famember or relative) will be able to access this information (regardless of the need, e.g., family emergency, of the specified directory information will be treated the same as educational records information. In response to prinquiries, the University will respond that "we have no information on this student." This request will remain in epermanently until revok | Student ID #: | Date of Birth | |
| 8-1 INTRODUCTION Student records maintained by the University fall into two general categories – directory information and educative records. 8-2 DIRECTORY INFORMATION Directory information is information concerning a student which may be released publicly. It includes the follow name (all names on record); address (all addresses on record); e-mail address (all electronic addresses on record); phone numbers (all phone numbers on record); height, weight and photos of athletic team members; date of birth; in field of study (all declared majors); minor field of study (all declared minors); class level; dates of attendance; enroll status; names of previous institutions attended; participation in officially recognized activities and sports; honors/av received and degrees earned (all degrees earned); date degree carned (dates of all degrees earned); and photogravideo, or electronic images of students taken and maintained by the institution. Students have the right to request that directory information not be made public by notifying the Office of the Regi In order to effectively suppress release of directory information, students must restrict their directory informs by the tenth day of the term and not reverse that restriction during the term. Students may reverse existing directeristicitions by submitting a written request to the Office of the Registrar. As you consider restricting your directory information from the public, please remember that when you rest the release of your directory information, NO ONE (regardless of relationship, e.g., spouse, parent, other famember or relative) will be able to access this information (regardless of the need, e.g., family emergency, or The specified directory information will be treated the same as educational records information. In response to prinquiries, the University will respond that "we have no information on this student." This request will remain in engangle to the release of my directory information. Note: This restriction does not include a right to be anonym | Registered in the College/School of | ?: | |
| Student records maintained by the University fall into two general categories – directory information and education records. 8-2 DIRECTORY INFORMATION Directory information is information concerning a student which may be released publicly. It includes the follow name (all names on record); address (all addresses on record); e-mail address (all electronic addresses on record); phone number (all phone numbers on record); height, weight and photos of athletic team members; date of birth; in field of study (all declared minors); class level; dates of attendance; enroll status; names of previous institutions attended; participation in officially recognized activities and sports; honors/as received and degrees earned (all degrees earned); date degree earned (dates of all degrees earned); and photogra video, or electronic images of students taken and maintained by the institution. Students have the right to request that directory information not be made public by notifying the Office of the Regis In order to effectively suppress release of directory information, students must restrict their directory informs by the tenth day of the term and not reverse that restriction during the term. Students may reverse existing directoritions by submitting a written request to the Office of the Registrar. As you consider restricting your directory information from the public, please remember that when you rest the release of your directory information, NO ONE (regardless of relationship, e.g., spouse, parent, other famember or relative) will be able to access this information (regardless of the need, e.g., family emergency, of the specified directory information will be treated the same as educational records information. In response to prinquiries, the University will respond that "we have no information on this student." This request will remain in experimental trevoked in writing by you. Within the guidelines and policy described above, I request a restriction of the release of my directory information. Note: This restri | Excerpted below are portions of Sec | ction 8, Student Records, from the Code of Stu | dent Life: |
| Directory information is information concerning a student which may be released publicly. It includes the follow name (all names on record); address (all addresses on record); e-mail address (all electronic addresses on record); phone number (all phone numbers on record); height, weight and photos of athletic team members; date of birth; n field of study (all declared majors); minor field of study (all declared minors); class level; dates of attendance; enroll status; names of previous institutions attended; participation in officially recognized activities and sports; honors/aw received and degrees earned (all degrees earned); date degree earned (dates of all degrees earned); and photogravideo, or electronic images of students taken and maintained by the institution. Students have the right to request that directory information not be made public by notifying the Office of the Registance of effectively suppress release of directory information, students must restrict their directory information by the tenth day of the term and not reverse that restriction during the term. Students may reverse existing directerizations by submitting a written request to the Office of the Registrar. As you consider restricting your directory information from the public, please remember that when you rest the release of your directory information, NO ONE (regardless of relationship, e.g., spouse, parent, other famember or relative) will be able to access this information (regardless of the need, e.g., family emergency, of the specified directory information will be treated the same as educational records information. In response to prinquiries, the University will respond that "we have no information on this student." This request will remain in experimently until revoked in writing by you. Within the guidelines and policy described above, I request a restriction of the release of my directory information. Note: This restriction does not include a right to be anonymous in the classroom, or impede routine classroom communicati | Student records maintained by | the University fall into two general categories | - directory information and educational |
| In order to effectively suppress release of directory information, students must restrict their directory information by the tenth day of the term and not reverse that restriction during the term. Students may reverse existing directory informations by submitting a written request to the Office of the Registrar. As you consider restricting your directory information from the public, please remember that when you rest the release of your directory information, NO ONE (regardless of relationship, e.g., spouse, parent, other famember or relative) will be able to access this information (regardless of the need, e.g., family emergency, of the specified directory information will be treated the same as educational records information. In response to purinquiries, the University will respond that "we have no information on this student." This request will remain in experimently until revoked in writing by you. Within the guidelines and policy described above, I request a restriction of the release of my directory information. Note: This restriction does not include a right to be anonymous in the classroom, or impede routine classroom communications and interactions. SIGNATURE | Directory information is inform name (all names on record); ad phone number (all phone numb field of study (all declared majo status; names of previous institu received and degrees earned (a | nation concerning a student which may be releaderess (all addresses on record); e-mail address pers on record); height, weight and photos of attors); minor field of study (all declared minors); outions attended; participation in officially recognil degrees earned); date degree earned (dates of | (all electronic addresses on record); hletic team members; date of birth; major class level; dates of attendance; enrollmen enized activities and sports; honors/awards of all degrees earned); and photographic |
| the release of your directory information, NO ONE (regardless of relationship, e.g., spouse, parent, other fa member or relative) will be able to access this information (regardless of the need, e.g., family emergency, of the specified directory information will be treated the same as educational records information. In response to pure inquiries, the University will respond that "we have no information on this student." This request will remain in experimently until revoked in writing by you. Within the guidelines and policy described above, I request a restriction of the release of my directory information. Note: This restriction does not include a right to be anonymous in the classroom, or impede routine classroom communications and interactions. SIGNATURE | In order to effectively suppres by the tenth day of the term a | ss release of directory information, students n nd not reverse that restriction during the tern | nust restrict their directory information |
| Note: This restriction does not include a right to be anonymous in the classroom, or impede routine classroom communications and interactions. SIGNATURE | the release of your directory in member or relative) will be a The specified directory informatinguiries, the University will re- | information, NO ONE (regardless of relational ble to access this information (regardless of ation will be treated the same as educational respond that "we have no information on this study." | nship, e.g., spouse, parent, other family the need, e.g., family emergency, etc.). ecords information. In response to public |
|  | Note: This restriction does not inclu | | |
| I.D. checked and form accepted by: Date | SIGNATURE | De | ATE |
| | | | |
| CRT field updated by: Date | I.D. checked and form accepted by: | | Date |
| | CRT field updated by: | | Date |

T:/office manual/forms/Request to Restrict Directory Information.doc