

Guiding Questions for Designing an Effective Learning Activity

What have you done in the past that has worked well?

Will your activity involve guided inquiry or direct instruction?

How will the learning activity help students learn when you are not physically present?

Will your activity be an individual, pair, or small group activity?

Will your activity involve meta-cognition or reflection?

Will your activity involve self-assessment?