

SGID Policy for online classes

An SGID can be conducted for online or hybrid classes which meet synchronously and utilize live discussion in the class. If the course meets asynchronously or does not have live discussion as part of the course, it is better to utilize an anonymous online survey to receive feedback. Help with online surveys is available through the Center for Instructional and Learning Technologies (777-6305).