

Hanying Xu International Spirit Scholarship Endowment for International Students

Guidelines for Eligibility

- Student must be a UND, full-time, graduate, international student taking courses on the Grand Forks campus
- Student must be in valid F-1 status with the Department of Homeland Security by the start of the academic term in which the scholarship is to be awarded
- Student must be in good financial standing at UND
- Any international student studying within any graduate program at UND
- Students should have demonstrated traits in the following:
 - An eagerness to cultivate a deep understanding and respect for new cultures and surroundings
 - Outstanding integrity and citizenship
 - Significant leadership and service activities that are integral to fostering the “spirit” of the University of North Dakota
- Application Form must be completed and submitted to the Office of International Programs by 4:30 pm on Reading & Review Day