Meet our presenter...

Jordan Anderson serves as the Early Intervention Specialist for ND HHS. With over 13 years of experience in the early intervention field, Jordan brings expertise in early intervention, program leadership, workforce development, and policy implementation under IDEA Part C. Jordan also teaches Early Childhood Special Education and Autism Spectrum Disorder at UND. In addition, Jordan is currently pursuing her Doctorate in Educational Leadership at UND. Jordan is certified in Dare to Lead by Brene Brown, grounding her leadership approach in courage, vulnerability, and values-driven systems change to better serve children, families, and professionals across the state.

This FREE virtual training opportunity for foster care providers, kinship caregivers, adoptive parents, & child welfare professionals. Continuing education credits available for ND foster care providers and social workers.

The UND Children and Family Services Training Center sponsors all of our Foster Care Provider trainings through a grant from the North Dakota Department of Health & Human Services, Children and Family Services Section.
