

ICWA CULTURAL CONNECTION PROGRAM

North Dakota has a need for more Native American foster homes. We know not everyone can foster a child, but you can still help! You can support children, their families, and foster homes by helping them stay connected to their culture.

Can't be a

Become a ICWA
Cultural Mentor

By becoming an ICWA Cultural Mentor, you would support foster children with staying connected to their culture through questions, events, or being there for them.

The majority of Native American children in foster homes are in non-Native foster homes.
