Why Study German Studies at UND?

Germany's leadership role in the European Union and on the world stage puts it at the center of international business, diplomacy and culture. A degree in German Studies and an understanding of the art and culture of German-speaking countries sets you apart in the job market.

As a German Studies student at UND, you will:

- Study the German language
- Explore the literature, film, art, music, architecture, politics, economies and traditions of German-speaking countries
- Examine the historical development of the modern German nation

We offer both a major and a minor in German Studies. When you pair your German Studies with a major in International Studies, Business, Engineering, Art, Music, Psychology, Political Science, History, English, Education or anything else, you demonstrate your readiness to engage in the global community.
