

Origination: 08/2018
Effective: 08/2021
Last Approved: 08/2021
Last Revised: 08/2021
Next Review: 08/2024

Owner: Alex Pokornowski: AVP for SA&D, ADOS/VPSAD PAG
 Liaison

Area: Office of Student Rights & Responsibilities

References:

Code of Student Life

I. Introduction to the Code of Student Life

The University of North Dakota (University) welcomes you to its community of more than 15,000 students, faculty, and staff. Our University community is made up of individuals representing the rich diversity and heritage of the populations of North Dakota, the nation, and the world. The University is ideally suited to make campus life a positive educational experience through the sharing of a multitude of ideas, experiences, life styles, cultures, and beliefs.

The mission of the University is to provide transformative learning, discovery, and community engagement opportunities for developing tomorrow's leaders.

As part of its mission, the University intends to nurture and sustain a learning environment which permits all to learn from the diversities brought to campus by members of the University community.

To strengthen the sense of community at the University, we affirm the following:

1. That everyone be allowed to work, learn, and live in a safe, caring environment.
2. That everyone learn about, understand, appreciate, and respect varied cultures.
3. That everyone matters.
4. That all individuals be respected and treated with dignity and civility.
5. That everyone continue to share in the responsibility of making UND a better place.

The Code of Student Life (Code) outlines the rights and responsibilities enjoyed by the students who make up our University community. The purpose of the information contained in the Code is to promote and maintain a learning environment appropriate for an institution of higher education and to serve as a basic guide to help prevent abuse of the rights of others. Members of the University community are expected to be familiar with the policies and processes contained within the Code and to act in compliance with them at all times. The Code is intended to be a general handbook to give guidance and direction to members of a very diverse University community. Although it is not possible to cover every conceivable situation that might arise, specific questions relating to the Code may be directed to the Office of Student Rights and Responsibilities or the Office of the Vice President for Student Affairs and Diversity.

Nothing within the Code is intended to limit or restrict freedom of speech or peaceful assembly. General statements of philosophy and principles to which the University subscribes are found in the State Board of Higher Education (SBHE) statement of academic freedom (SBHE 401.1).

The Code is published periodically and is subject to amendment or revision. The Code published online at <http://und.edu/code-of-student-life/> is the current version in use by the University. Members of the University community are encouraged to submit proposed amendments or revisions to the Code of Student Life Review Committee (CSLR Committee) for consideration.

A. Authority

The authority for student discipline, also referred to as student conduct, is derived from the president, who has delegated authority to the vice president for student affairs and diversity (VPSAD). The VPSAD further delegates authority to the assistant dean of students. The assistant dean of students administers the policies, procedural rules, and programs for student conduct hearings consistent with provisions of the Code, federal and state laws, and University and SBHE policies.

The assistant dean of students may further delegate the authority for student conduct and appoint individuals to serve as student conduct administrators (SCA).

SCAs are the individuals identified by the University to manage the student conduct process. Identified SCAs include members of the Office of Student Rights and Responsibilities staff and Housing staff responsible for the daily operation of the residence hall and apartment communities.

The VPSAD is the final authority for interpretation or application of the Code.

B. Jurisdiction

University disciplinary proceedings may be instituted against a student charged with conduct that potentially violates federal, state, or local laws, ordinances, or regulations and/or the Code (that is, if both possible violations result from the same factual situation) without regard to pending civil or criminal litigation, criminal arrest, or prosecution. Proceedings under the Code may be carried out prior to, simultaneously with, or following civil or criminal proceedings at the discretion of the VPSAD or designee.

Determinations made or sanctions imposed under the Code will not be changed solely because criminal charges arising out of the same facts giving rise to violation of University rules were dismissed, reduced, or resolved in favor of or against the student.

Each student is responsible for their conduct from the time of application for admission through the actual awarding of a degree, even though conduct may occur before classes begin or after classes end, as well as during the academic year and during periods between terms of actual enrollment (and even if the student's conduct is not discovered until after a degree is awarded). The Code applies to a student's conduct even if the student withdraws from school while a disciplinary matter is pending.

The VPSAD or designee will determine whether the Code will be applied. The assistant dean of students or designee may also determine not to apply the Code to the conduct of a student filing a complaint or participating in the investigation of a complaint.

If a complaint alleges that a violation occurred while a previous version of the Code was in effect, the alleged behavior will be evaluated based upon the version of the Code and/or applicable policies that were in effect at the time of the alleged violation. The student conduct process in effect at the time that the complaint is filed will be utilized.

C. Code Development & Amendment Process

The Code is published online and is subject to periodic amendment and revision. On an as-needed basis, the assistant dean of students will make routine changes (such as new contact names, department names, position titles, and e-mail or Web addresses) to the Code. The date of such changes will be noted on the revision record. Routine updates will not require endorsement through the Code review process. All other changes to any portion of the Code will be made through the utilization of the Code Review Process.

1. Code Review Process

The CSLR Committee is an advisory group responsible for reviewing and recommending amendments and revisions to the Code. The CSLR Committee is chaired by a member of the Office of Student Rights and Responsibilities staff and comprised of representatives from the following areas:

- a. Office of Student Rights and Responsibilities (Chair),
- b. Equal Opportunity & Title IX,
- c. Association of Residence Halls (ARH),
- d. General Counsel,
- e. Interfraternity Council,
- f. Panhellenic Council,
- g. Student Government,
- h. Director, Student Diversity and Inclusion,
- i. University Police Department (UPD),
- j. University Senate, and
- k. Additional members as chosen by the committee.

CSLR Committee members will be selected annually, serve one academic year and will meet on an as-needed basis.

When the CSLR Committee has provided its final feedback regarding recommended amendments and revisions to the Code, the assistant dean of students or designee will determine which amendments and revisions will move forward.

The assistant dean of students or designee will present the proposed changes to the University Senate Executive Committee (SEC) for review and feedback. The SEC provides leadership for the senate, ensures that University Senate policies are implemented, and acts as a liaison between the University Senate, the University of North Dakota, and the North Dakota University System.

The assistant dean of students or designee will present the proposed Code changes to the Policy Advisory Group (PAG) for review. PAG is a standing committee with broad University representation that is appointed by the vice president for finance and operations. PAG is charged with assisting in the formulation of new policies, the revisions of existing policies, and recommending review and endorsement to the President's Cabinet.

The Policy Office, responsible for PAG oversight, will post the proposed Code changes to its website for a minimum two-week campus comment period. The CSLR Committee will consider all feedback and determine whether and how these responses will be incorporated.

If the feedback results in substantial changes, the proposed Code will be represented to the members of PAG and posted for a second campus comment period. The CSLR Committee will again consider all feedback and determine whether and how these responses will be incorporated.

The PAG will review all final proposed revisions and amendments to the Code and will submit them to the President's Cabinet for endorsement. The president will have final approval.

If the president approves the changes, the assistant dean of students or designee will update the Code and communicate the final changes to the University community through a formal announcement. If the president does not approve the changes and recommends additional edits, the assistant dean of students or designee and CSLR Committee will coordinate appropriate edits and additional reviews as necessary prior to returning the changes to the President's Cabinet for further review and subsequent approval by the president. If the president does not approve the changes, no changes will be made and the Code will stand unamended.

2. Policy Development Authority in University Residences

The director of housing is responsible for the operations of residence halls and university apartments (university residences). Housing staff are responsible for providing a residential environment which is conducive to students' academic success. Policies for university residences may be developed in addition to those in the Code. All university residence policies go through the residence hall government and policy development process.

Residence Hall Government and Policy Development Process:

- a. Residence policies are clarified by the appropriate channels through the Housing Office and are subject to the review and approval of the VPSAD and the president,
- b. The occupants of each residence hall, by merit of paying ARH fees, are members of their respective hall government and of ARH,
- c. ARH may recommend or endorse rules governing life within the residence halls. ARH is not the approval body for rules governing the residence halls. Proposed rules endorsed by various hall governments may be considered by ARH, and
- d. Recommended rules endorsed by ARH are subject to approval by the director of housing or designee and/or through the appropriate university policy review and approval processes.

3. Temporary & Provisional Changes to the Code

All policies and procedures within the Code are intended to be consistent with state and federal laws and regulations and University and SBHE policies. As such, modifications to the Code may be made on a temporary or provisional basis to ensure consistency with all laws, regulations, and policies. Temporary or provisional changes to the Code are approved by the president or designee.

II. General University Policies, Regulations, & Prohibited Acts

The Code defines the rights and responsibilities that students have as members of the academic community.

All students are expected to maintain a high standard of conduct. The Code applies to students online, on-campus, and off-campus.

Appropriate conduct in a community of scholars includes obeying the law, showing respect for authority, meeting contractual obligations, honestly communicating with the University, and maintaining integrity and individual honor in scholastic work.

A student is expected to be responsible for their actions whether acting individually or in a group. The term student includes both a student acting as an individual and to students acting in a group and/or a student organization, unless otherwise noted.

Any attempted act that, if completed, would constitute a violation of the Code will be treated as a completed act.

SCAs may initiate the student conduct process if a student engages in or is alleged to have engaged in any of the following:

A. Violations of Criminal or Civil Law

Behavior that may constitute a violation of federal, state, or local laws, ordinances, or regulations.

B. Acts of Dishonesty

Including, but not limited to:

1. Academic Dishonesty. Academic dishonesty includes, but is not limited to, cheating, plagiarism, and collusion. Students are expected to follow all direction provided by the instructor as it relates to academic work. At the discretion of the instructor, cases of academic dishonesty may be referred to student conduct as a disciplinary matter in addition to being responded to by an academic unit. Any incidents previously addressed by an academic unit may be considered in sanctioning decisions when a student is found in violation of the Code for academic dishonesty.

Instructors may address incidents of dishonesty for that instructor's course, including (but not limited to) assigning a grade based on the instructor's determination that the student engaged in academic dishonesty related to that course. If the student has a grievance related to this action, that grievance would be directed to the college or school in which the course is housed. The grievance is processed according to the rules of the college or school and as outlined in Academic Grievances portion of the Code.

Additionally, the instructor may refer the case as a disciplinary matter to the assistant dean of students. The assistant dean of students may further refer the case to the student conduct process.

- a. Cheating. Cheating includes, but is not restricted to:
  - i. Copying from another's work in a manner that is not authorized by the instructor or designee;
  - ii. Possessing or using material related to any academic work (e.g. test, homework, quiz, assignments) not authorized by the instructor or designee;
  - iii. Collaborating with or seeking aid from another related to any academic work without permission from the instructor or designee;
  - iv. Knowingly using, buying, selling, stealing, transporting, or soliciting in whole or in part the contents of unadministered academic work;
  - v. Substituting for another student or permitting another student to substitute for oneself to participate in academic work; and/or
  - vi. Bribing another person to obtain an unadministered academic work or information about an unadministered academic work.

- b. Plagiarism. Plagiarism means the appropriation, buying, receiving as a gift, or obtaining by any means another person's work and the unacknowledged submission or incorporation of it in one's own work.
  - c. Collusion. Collusion means the unauthorized collaboration with another person in preparing any academic work offered for credit.
2. Document Misuse. Misusing, falsely representing, defacing, mutilating, or stealing a University document.
  3. Election Tampering. Tampering with the election of any University recognized student organization or representational body.
  4. False Information. Furnishing false information to or withholding required information from any University document, representative, faculty member, or official.
  5. Forgery. Forgery, alteration, or misuse of any official document, record, or instrument of identification, including University documents, records, or instrument of identification or presenting such forged, altered, or falsified records to a University official.
  6. ID Misuse. The lending, giving to another person, or the use by a person to whom the document was not issued, of a University ID card or any document that is intended for use solely by the individual to whom the document was issued. The U-Card is considered the official University ID card. Theft of U-Card services, duplication, and/or altering of this card are prohibited.
  7. Non-Conduct Resolution Violation. Failure to comply with a non-conduct resolution agreement.

C. Acts Against Self or Other Persons

Including, but not limited to:

1. Assault. Causing, willfully or negligently, bodily injury to another human being.
2. Endangerment. Physical abuse, threats, intimidation, harassment, coercion, and/or other conduct which threatens or endangers the health or safety of any persons.
3. Harassment. See Discrimination and Harassment policy.
4. Hazing. Hazing is defined as an act by an individual or group that is an explicit or implicit condition for initiation to, admission into, affiliation with, or continued membership in a group or organization that could be seen by a reasonable person as endangering the physical health of an individual or as causing mental distress to an individual. These acts may include, but are not limited to:
  - a. The destruction, damage, and/or removal of public or private property;
  - b. The consumption of alcohol or drugs;
  - c. The consumption of any substance to excess;
  - d. Sexual activity;
  - e. Sleep, food, and/or water deprivation;
  - f. Forced physical activity;
  - g. Extended isolation;
  - h. Overexposure to weather; or

- i. Any behavior described in NDCC Chapter 12.1-17-10.

If behavior is found to be consistent with the definition of hazing, it will be treated as hazing regardless of whether individuals consented to the hazing. Anyone who is found to have knowingly planned, actively or passively participated in, or in any other way facilitated hazing is also responsible for hazing. Appropriate activities associated with University groups (e.g., physical activity required for participation in University-sponsored athletic teams) are not considered violations of this policy. For purposes of this section, "University group" includes, but is not limited to, recognized student organizations, clubs, teams, or any other group affiliated with the University.

5. Interference. Conducting one's self in a manner that significantly interferes with the operations of the University or endangers the health or safety of members of the University community and/or campus visitors, including actions that (a) substantially interfere with, or (b) are taken with a general intent to engage in actions to substantially interfere with, another's educational opportunities, peaceful enjoyment of residence, physical security, or terms/conditions of employment.
6. Menacing. Knowingly places another person in fear through threats of imminent and serious harm.
7. Stalking. See Title IX and Sexual Violence policy.
8. Surreptitious intrusion. Intruding upon or interfering with the privacy of another by secretly or without authorization gazing, staring, peeping upon, photographing, recording, amplifying, or broadcasting sounds or events of another.
9. Terrorizing. Threatening to commit an act of violence and/or an act that would endanger another person's safety.

D. Disruptive Activity or Disorderly Conduct

Including, but not limited to:

1. Abuse of the University student conduct system, including but not limited to:
  - a. Disruption or interference with the orderly conduct of a Code proceeding;
  - b. Falsification, distortion, or misrepresentation of information to an SCA or hearing panel;
  - c. Influencing another person to commit an abuse of the student conduct system;
  - d. Discouraging an individual's proper participation in, or use of, the student conduct system;
  - e. Intimidating an SCA, a member of a hearing panel, a participant in a conduct hearing, or a person hearing an appeal prior to, during, and/or after a student conduct proceeding;
  - f. Initiating, in bad faith, an action under the Code;
  - g. Failing to comply in a timely manner when contacted to meet with an SCA; and/or
  - h. Retaliating against someone because they are participating in or declining to participate in a Code proceeding.
2. Campus Disruption. Participating in any behavior that disrupts the normal operations of the University and/or infringes on the rights of other members of the University community; leading or inciting others to disrupt scheduled and/or normal activities within any campus building or area; or intentionally obstructing or unreasonably interfering with freedom of movement, either pedestrian or vehicular, on campus.
3. Classroom Disruption. Engaging in behavior that substantially and/or repeatedly interrupts either a faculty member's ability to teach or student learning. The classroom includes any setting where a student is engaged in work toward academic credit or the satisfaction of program-based requirement or related activities.

4. Failure to Comply with University Officials or Law Enforcement. Failing to comply with the directions of University officials or law enforcement officers acting in performance of their duties; failure to identify oneself to these persons when requested to do so; and/or failure to comply with the sanction(s) imposed under the Code.

E. Violation of any University Policy, Rule, or Regulation

Violation of any University policy, rule, or regulation published in hard copy or available electronically on the University or SBHE website, including violations of the Residence Hall Room and Board License Agreement and policies, or the University Apartment Policy Book. University policies, rules, and regulations include, but are not limited to:

1. Possession/Use of Prohibited Items

- a. Alcohol. See Alcohol and Drugs policy.
- b. Drugs/Paraphernalia. See Alcohol and Drugs policy.
- c. Medical Amnesty Act and Overdose Prevention and Immunity. See Alcohol and Drugs policy.
- d. Weapons. See Weapons policy.

2. Acts Involving Property

Including, but not limited to:

- a. Computer and Network Misuse. Theft or other abuse of computer facilities and resources, including any action which violates SBHE Policy on Computing Facilities (1901.2), the Student Acceptable Use policy and/or the Digital Millennium Copyright Act.
- b. Fire Equipment Misuse. Maliciously and/or negligently tampering with fire alarms or fire equipment.
- c. Theft/Property Damage. Theft of and/or damage to property within the premises or jurisdiction of the University, including University property or any property of a member of the University community and/or contractor(s), vendor(s), or guest(s) of the University.
- d. Trespassing/Unauthorized Entry. Unauthorized presence on or use of University premises, facilities, or property. Violating protocols listed in the Access to and Security of Campus Facilities Policy or through other means circumventing locks in university facilities or other unauthorized presence on or use of University premises, facilities, or property.

3. Sexual Misconduct

Sexual misconduct includes dating violence, domestic violence, sexual assault, sexual exploitation, and sexual harassment. Sexual misconduct also includes assault, stalking, and other acts prohibited by the Code when the behavior is based on an intimate relationship and/or actual or perceived gender, gender expression, sex, or sexual orientation. For more information, see the Title IX and Sexual Violence and Discrimination and Harassment policies.

- a. Dating Violence. See Title IX and Sexual Violence policy.

- b. Domestic Violence. See Title IX and Sexual Violence policy.
- c. Sexual Assault. See Title IX and Sexual Violence policy.
- d. Sexual Exploitation. See Discrimination and Harassment policy.
- e. Sexual Harassment. See Title IX and Sexual Violence policy and Discrimination and Harassment policy.

F. Additional University Policies & Documents:

1. Criminal, Disciplinary Background Check at Admission to UND

Students making application to the University of North Dakota are asked about their criminal history and any disciplinary history at other colleges and universities. If an applicant answers in the affirmative to these questions, they will be asked to provide additional information. The risk posed to the community by the applicant is considered by campus stakeholders before an admission decision is made. Certain conditions may be required of those students who are admitted under this process.

An affirmative response does not automatically deny admission. Some programs - undergraduate, graduate, and professional - may have more stringent requirements. See SBHE Policy 511.

2. Disability Accommodations

The University provides reasonable accommodations to qualified students with disabilities to ensure access to all programs and services. Students must contact Disability Services for Students, 701.777.2664, to request accommodations.

3. Assemblies and Demonstrations

Refer to the Events, Demonstrations, Fixed Exhibits, and Short-Term Rentals policy for information regarding assemblies and demonstrations.

4. Policy on Graduate Assistants and Special Employees with Co-Required Student Status

All graduate assistants (graduate teaching assistants, graduate research assistants, and graduate service assistants), and special employees who are concurrently required to be students (e.g., certified flight instructors, residence hall staff) are students and are responsible for abiding by all policies as outlined in the Code. Additionally, they are subject to the ethical precepts and code of their academic profession, the laws of the state of North Dakota regarding its employees, and the University of North Dakota policies which govern their institutional obligations. Violation of these constitutes a basis for disciplinary action in accordance with distributed University procedures.

5. Spiritual Use of Sage, Sweetgrass, and Cedar Policy in UND Housing, the Memorial Union, and Other Non-Classroom Buildings

Ancient and profound traditions concerning the use of plants abound within American Indian/Alaska native tribal cultures. The uses of these plants address a variety of medicinal and spiritual purposes. Long before Europeans arrived to North America, a variety of sacred plants were used in spiritual and ceremonial contexts.

Today, well-established patterns of sacred plant use continue to be a part of tribal and intertribal ceremonial traditions.

The basic right of all Americans to religious freedom is strongly protected by the U.S. Constitution. The 1978 American Indian/Alaska Native Religious Freedom Act further and more explicitly protects Indian peoples' rights to religious practice. The University recognizes that religious traditions demand respect and protection. As members of this educational community, students are encouraged to recognize and respect the religious rights of all persons.

Using the smokes of sage, sweetgrass, and/or cedar is an important element in American Indian/Alaska Native purification and prayer ceremonies. When used in a spiritual manner, they are considered sacred within American Indian/Alaska native spiritual traditions.

In support of the spiritual lives of American Indian/Alaska natives, UND Housing Policies allow the spiritual use of sage, sweetgrass, and cedar smoke, when its use is for the purpose of purification and prayer is consistent with time-honored cultural, traditional, and spiritual observances; and complies with the protocols outlined in this document. Such use is subject to all University, UND Housing, Memorial Union, and other non-classroom building policies concerning safety. For further information contact the UND Housing Office, Indian Studies Department, American Indian Student Services, Indians Into Medicine, Recruitment and Retention of American Indians Into Nursing, Indians Into Psychology Doctoral Education, Memorial Union, Deans of Colleges, or building administrators.

6. Suggestions and Complaints

The University welcomes suggestions and/or complaints from students, faculty, and staff. These suggestions and complaints should be directed to the unit or personnel most directly involved. It is only in this way that the institution can become aware of potential problems and take appropriate action. The University may review with accrediting agencies a log of anonymously tracked written student complaints. See student conduct complaint process for filing complaints for student misconduct with the Office of Student Rights and Responsibilities.

Additional University and State Board policies and documents include, but are not limited to:

Academic Catalog

Academic Freedom

Consensual Relationships

Complaints of Discrimination or Harassment Policy and Procedures

Freedom of Expression Policy

Intramural Participant Handbook

IT Security Related Policies

Lactation Support for Nursing Mothers

Misconduct in Scholarship

Parking Policy

Student Acceptable Use of IT Resources Policy

Student Consumer Information

Student Health Services

III. Student Conduct Process

A. Student Conduct Complaint

Any member of the University community may file a complaint against a student for an alleged violation of the Code. The University will presume that the student alleged to have violated the Code is not responsible for the alleged violation until a determination regarding responsibility is made at the end of the student conduct process. The presumption does not preclude the University from taking emergency action as described in the Emergency Suspension and/or Conditions Process of the Code.

A complaint should be submitted as soon as possible after the event takes place or when an individual is made aware of a potential event of concern. The Office of Student Rights and Responsibilities assists members of the University community in answering questions, addressing concerns, and preparing complaints.

The individual who filed the complaint has the ability to indicate their desired response to the complaint. The wishes of the individual who filed the complaint will be taken into consideration in determining the institutional response.

Respecting one's right to privacy is important to the University with respect to the privacy of the involved individuals. Students can be assured that when they share information with medical, police, and/or University officials, such information will be handled professionally and within the framework of each agency's governing body privacy limitations (e.g., state law, licensing bodies, FERPA).

A student's privacy concerns are weighed against the needs of the University to respond to acts of harassment, including sexual misconduct. Information is shared on a limited basis and only with individuals who need to know to provide assistance and/or response to the complaint. When an individual files a complaint and requests that their name not be revealed to the accused person, the University's ability to respond may be limited.

Harassment and discrimination complaints may also be directed to the University's Assistant Vice President for Equal Opportunity & Title IX. Please see the Discrimination and Harassment policy for additional information.

Reports taken by Housing staff members, reports created by University members, and police reports will be considered complaints. The University may choose to consider information received from individuals and organizations outside of the University as a complaint.

All complaints will be reviewed by an SCA for consideration in the student conduct process. In review of a complaint, it may be determined that:

- a. Additional information is needed to determine a course of action. If it is determined that additional information is needed, an SCA may investigate the nature of the complaint to determine if a violation of the Code may have occurred;
- b. The complaint does not state circumstances which, if found to be true, would demonstrate a violation of the Code. If it is determined that the behavior as reported would not violate the Code, the complaint will be closed; or
- c. The complaint indicates that a violation of the Code may have occurred. If it is determined that a complaint does indicate a possible violation of the Code, the complaint will be referred to the administrative student conduct process or the student conduct suspension process.

If at the conclusion of an investigation it is determined that the information indicates that a violation of the Code did not occur or that there is insufficient information to indicate a violation of the Code did occur the complaint will be closed.

A closed complaint is a final decision. In rare circumstances, a closed complaint may be reopened if the University receives new information regarding an alleged violation of the Code. If a complaint is reopened, the accused student will be notified that the complaint has been reopened and have an opportunity to respond to the information. The assistant dean of students, or designee, has the discretion to reopen a complaint.

If the complaint alleges that violence, harassment, or an act of sexual misconduct has occurred, the complainant may have additional rights within the student conduct process.

The Director of Equal Opportunity & Title IX, or designee, will be consulted by the SCA if appropriate.

Only relevant information will be considered in making decisions within the student conduct process.

In some circumstances, the SCA may determine that a non-conduct resolution between the person who filed the complaint and the accused student is appropriate and choose to work with those involved rather than going through a student conduct process. If a non-conduct resolution is not reached, the SCA may refer the complaint to a student conduct process or close the complaint.

B. Student Rights

A student has the following rights:

1. To be treated fairly;
2. To be notified of any proceeding which they are able to attend;
3. To be notified of the alleged violation(s) of the Code, also known as charges, and the possible consequences that may result;
4. To be heard by a fair and impartial decision maker;
5. To know the identity of those who made the complaint;
6. To choose to be accompanied by a personal advocate;
7. To choose to offer information on their own behalf;
8. To be notified in writing of any sanctions or actions which have been assessed;
9. To be notified in writing of the appeal process; and
10. To review their discipline record.

In certain circumstances a student may have the following additional rights:

1. In an incident of alleged violence or sexual misconduct, the individual who submitted the complaint may be notified of the outcome of any student conduct process as allowed by FERPA, and
2. In an incident of alleged sexual misconduct, the individual who submitted the complaint and the accused student may have the same rights as allowed by FERPA and SBHE Policy 514.

A student may choose to participate or not participate in any portion of the student conduct process. If a student does not attend a scheduled student conduct proceeding, the student conduct proceeding will continue in their absence. Choosing not to participate or failing to attend any portion of a student conduct process is not interpreted as an admission of responsibility nor a basis for additional sanctions.

C. Standard of Determination

The student conduct process is educational in nature and determination of responsibility for all alleged violations of the Code is based on the preponderance of information standard. The preponderance of information standard is also used for appeals of student conduct decisions. The preponderance of information standard is defined as more likely than not. An anonymous complaint cannot provide satisfactory information to determine that a student has violated the Code. A finding of a court of law after the completion of a student conduct process does not change the outcome, but it may be considered during an appeal process.

D. Administrative Student Conduct Process

Students involved in alleged misconduct that may involve a violation of the Code will be referred to the student conduct process. The administrative student conduct process details the process taken by the University after receiving notification of a possible violation of the Code. The process includes:

- i. Pre-hearing conference,
- ii. Administrative hearing, and
- iii. Appeal process.

A complaint that is referred to the student conduct process does not have to result in an administrative hearing. If during the student conduct process it becomes clear that the information does not indicate a violation of the Code occurred the complaint may be closed.

1. Pre-Hearing Conference

Upon receiving information indicating a possible violation of the Code, the University will consider the information a complaint and initiate a student conduct process.

An SCA will be assigned to the accused student. The SCA will review the following with the accused student:

- a. Student rights in a student conduct process,
- b. The administrative student conduct process,
- c. The retaliation prohibited statement,
- d. The nature of the complaint,
- e. Campus and community resources available to the student, and
- f. Interim measures that may be imposed on the student.

The accused student will be given the opportunity to provide information regarding the complaint. The student may choose to proceed to an administrative hearing or indicate to the SCA that they have violated the Code. If the student indicates that they have violated the Code, the SCA and the student may discuss appropriate sanctions and may informally resolve the complaint. If the SCA and the student agree to sanctions the sanctions will be imposed and an administrative hearing will not be scheduled. If the SCA and the student do not agree to sanctions an administrative hearing will be scheduled.

The SCA may determine that additional information is needed to make a determination as to whether or not a violation of the Code occurred, if so, the SCA may further investigate the complaint prior to scheduling an administrative hearing and/or refer the complaint to another SCA.

An administrative hearing will be scheduled between three and fifteen business days following the pre-hearing conference. The accused student may waive the minimum time requirement. The SCA may extend the maximum time requirement for an ongoing investigation or due to extenuating circumstances presented by the accused student.

2. Administrative Hearing

- a. Hearings will be conducted in private.
- b. In hearings involving more than one accused student the SCA has the discretion to permit the hearings concerning each student to be conducted either separately or jointly.
- c. The accused student is responsible for presenting their own information, and therefore, personal advocates are not permitted to participate directly in the hearing. The personal advocate may offer support, guidance, and advice to the student in a manner that does not disrupt the proceedings.
- d. The accused student may present or arrange for witnesses to present pertinent information to the SCA. Pertinent information includes, but is not limited to, records, exhibits, and written statements.
- e. The SCA may accommodate concerns for the personal safety, well-being, and/or fears of confrontation of the complainant, accused student, and/or other witnesses during the hearing, and in whatever manner, as determined to be appropriate in the sole judgment of the SCA.
- f. Formal rules of process, procedure, and/or technical rules of evidence, such as those that are applied in criminal or civil court, are not used in the Code proceedings. All procedure questions are subject to the final decision of the SCA.

3. SCA Decision

- a. After the administrative hearing concludes, in which all pertinent information has been received, the SCA will determine whether the accused student has violated the Code and if so, determine sanction(s).
- b. The SCA may determine that more information is necessary before reaching a decision or that referral of the received information to another SCA is warranted, and, with notice to the accused student, continue or refer the investigation of the complaint.
- c. Any decision will be rendered to the student in writing within five business days of the conclusion of the administrative hearing. In hearings involving more than one student, the SCA has five business days from the date of the last hearing to render a decision.

4. Appeal Process

After being found in violation of the Code, the accused student has the right to appeal the outcome of the administrative student conduct process.

- a. Appeals of decisions made within the administrative student conduct process for individual students are made to the assistant dean of students.
- b. Appeals must be made in writing to the assistant dean of students within five business days after the notification of any administrative student conduct process decision. A notice of appeal will contain the student's name and contact information, the date of the decision or action, the reason for appeal, and the name of the student's personal advocate, if any.
- c. Grounds for appeal may be based on such things as:

- i. New information,
  - ii. Contradictory information, and/or
  - iii. Information that indicates the student in violation was not afforded due process.
- d. The reason and rationale for an appeal should be clearly stated within the appeal. The appeal should indicate the desired outcome of the appeal.
- e. An appeal will be reviewed by the assistant dean of students or designee. The assistant dean of students or designee may consider the appeal, police reports, transcripts, the outcome of any civil or criminal proceedings directly related to the appeal, and information presented during the administrative student conduct process in their review of the appeal. The assistant dean of students or designee will make all decisions regarding the appeal.
- f. After reviewing the appeal, the assistant dean of students or designee will determine if a valid ground(s) for an appeal has been presented. If the assistant dean of students or designee determines the ground(s) presented are not valid, the appeal will be dismissed and the previously made decision is final. Providing information that was available and not provided during the administrative student conduct process is not considered new or contradictory information.
- g. If it is determined that the ground(s) for appeal is valid, the assistant dean of students or designee may:
  - i. Modify the decision. The assistant dean of students or designee may overturn all or some of the decisions regarding violations of the Code and/or modify or vacate any sanction;
  - ii. Order a new hearing. The assistant dean of students or designee may void all or some of the determinations and call for a new student conduct hearing. The assistant dean of students or designee may provide specific instructions to those participating in the student conduct hearing regarding the rights of a student, the hearing process and/or information that is or is not relevant to the hearing; or
  - iii. Uphold the decision.
- h. The assistant dean of students or designee has ten business days from the receipt date of the appeal in which to issue a written determination on the appeal. Such written determination will be forwarded to the accused student and the SCA.
- i. The action of the assistant dean of students or designee is final.
- j. In extraordinary circumstances when previously unknown information relative to the decision is made available the assistant dean of students or designee may choose to review a decision after the end of the appeal process. The assistant dean of students or designee will have the sole authority to determine what does and what does not constitute an extraordinary circumstance.

E. Student Conduct Suspension Process

Students involved in alleged misconduct that may result in a suspension from the University will be referred to the student conduct suspension process, herein referred to as a suspension process.

Alleged misconduct that may result in a suspension includes, but is not limited to, behavior that poses a threat of danger and/or injury to self or others, destruction of property, physical assault, sexual misconduct, possession or involvement in the sale or manufacture of drugs and/or weapons, false emergency reporting, repeat violations of the Code, non-compliance with sanctions imposed through a student conduct process, bias-motivated offenses, interfering, and/or disrupting University activities and/or educational processes.

Emergency suspension and conditions may be considered if the alleged misconduct indicates that the student's behavior poses a significant threat of danger and/or injury to self or others, a threat of disruption of the educational process for others, or a threat of destruction of property.

The suspension process details the process taken by the University after receiving notification of a possible violation of the Code that may result in a suspension. The process includes:

- a. Rights and responsibilities meeting,
- b. Investigation,
- c. Pre-hearing conference,
- d. Suspension hearing, and
- e. Appeal process.

A complaint that is referred to the suspension process does not have to result in a suspension hearing. At the conclusion of the investigation stage of the process the hearing officer will determine the process by which the complaint will be resolved. The complaint may be resolved by referring the complaint to the suspension process, the administrative student conduct process, or by closing the complaint.

If during the suspension process it becomes clear that the information does not indicate a violation of the Code occurred, or that suspension is not warranted, the complaint may be referred to a different process outlined in the Code. This may include, but is not limited to, closing the complaint or referring the accused student to the administrative student conduct process.

If the suspension process does result in a suspension hearing, the hearing will be closed to the public.

1. Rights and Responsibilities Meeting

Upon receiving information indicating a possible violation of the Code that may result in suspension, the University will consider the information a complaint and initiate a student conduct suspension process.

A university employee or agent trained in the student conduct suspension process will provide the following to the accused student:

- a. Student rights in a student conduct process.
- b. The suspension process.
- c. The retaliation prohibited statement.
- d. The nature of the complaint.
- e. Campus and community resources available to the student.
- f. Interim measures that may be imposed on the student.

2. Investigation

An SCA or designee will conduct an investigation of an alleged violation of the Code.

The investigator will gather information from members of the University community who were involved in the alleged violation of the Code or who may have witnessed or have knowledge of the alleged violation of the Code. In some instances the investigator may gather information from individuals outside of the University community.

After completing the investigation the investigator will create an investigation summary. The investigation summary will include the following:

- a. The complaint.
- b. A summary of the investigation and information gathered.
- c. Summaries of any interviews.
- d. Any additional information or documents obtained by the investigator.

3. Pre-Hearing Conference

The investigation summary will be provided to the accused student at the completion of the investigation.

Upon receipt of the investigation summary the accused student has three business days to respond to the hearing officer regarding the investigation summary, and may do so in the following ways:

- a. Indicate that they believe that the investigation is complete and/or provide a written supplement. An accused student indicating that the investigation is complete does not mean that the accused student agrees with all of the information provided in the investigation summary.
- b. Request a supplemental investigation. If an accused student requests further investigation be done, the accused student should also indicate what ought to be done and why it ought to be done.
- c. Decline to respond to the investigation summary. An accused student declining to respond to an investigation summary does not indicate that they do or do not believe that the investigation is complete.

If a supplemental investigation is requested, the hearing officer will have the sole authority to determine if the requested supplemental investigation is or is not needed. The hearing officer will notify the accused student of the decision to further investigate the complaint within three business days of receiving the request.

If the hearing officer determines a supplemental investigation is needed, the hearing officer or the hearing officer's designee will conduct the supplemental investigation. Additional information gathered during a supplemental investigation will be provided to the accused student.

If the accused student indicates that the investigation is complete, declines to respond to the investigation summary, or the hearing officer determines that a supplemental investigation is not needed the complaint will continue with the pre-hearing conference.

Upon the completion of the investigation the hearing officer may:

- a. Refer the accused student to the administrative student conduct process,
- b. Refer the accused student to a suspension hearing, or
- c. Close the complaint.

If the hearing officer refers the accused student to a suspension hearing the hearing officer will write a recommendation. The recommendation will include the following:

- a. The alleged violation(s) of the Code and the rationale for why the hearing officer has determined that the student should be found in violation of the Code and
- b. The recommended sanctions and rationale for the determination which may include, but is not limited to, the nature of specific violation of the Code, previous violations of the Code, and the status of previous sanctions, if any.

The hearing officer will provide their recommendation to the accused student. The accused student has three business days to respond to the hearing officer's recommendation. The accused student has the following options:

- a. Accept the hearing officer's recommendation. If the accused student accepts a hearing officer's recommendation, the student does not forfeit the right to an appeal and the sanctions go into effect upon the student's acceptance.
- b. Accept portions of the hearing officer's recommendation. If the accused student only accepts a portion of the hearing officer's recommendation, a suspension hearing will be held.
- c. Offer an alternative recommendation. If the accused student offers an alternative recommendation, the hearing officer and student may come to a mutually agreed upon decision. If a mutually agreed upon decision cannot be reached, a suspension hearing will be held.
- d. Not accept the hearing officer's recommendation. If a student does not accept, or does not respond to the hearing officer's recommendation, a suspension hearing will be held.

4. Suspension Hearing

The accused student will be notified of a suspension hearing at least seven calendar days prior to the scheduled hearing date. Included in the notification will be a request for the accused student to provide the student relations committee advisor (SRC advisor), within three business days of receipt, the following:

- i. The identity of the student's personal advocate, if any, and whether or not the personal advocate is a licensed attorney, and
- ii. A list of witnesses to be called on behalf of the accused student and copies of any documents or other materials to be presented by the accused student at the hearing.

Additionally, the notification will include an overview of a suspension hearing, the purpose of the hearing, and the names of any witnesses being called by the hearing officer during the hearing. In most circumstances the hearing officer will not call any witnesses during the hearing. If portions of the hearing officer recommendation are accepted by the accused student prior to the hearing and after the accused student has been notified of the suspension hearing the hearing officer will provide revised information regarding the purpose of the hearing to the accused student and the SRC advisor.

The SRC Advisor and hearing chair may accommodate concerns for the personal safety, well-being, and/or fears of confrontation of the complainant, accused student, and/or other witnesses during the hearing, and in whatever manner, as determined to be appropriate in the judgment of the SRC Advisor and hearing chair.

Formal rules of process, procedure, and/or technical rules of evidence, such as those that are applied in criminal or civil court, are not used in the Code proceedings. All procedure questions are subject to the final decision of the hearing chair.

a. Composition of the Hearing Panel

Suspension hearing panels are comprised of members chosen from the Student Relations Committee (SRC). One of whom will serve as hearing chair. Student members of the SRC are not eligible to serve as a hearing chair. The SRC is the highest student conduct body and SRC members are appointed by the VPSAD. The SRC consists of faculty, staff, and students. All members of the SRC are trained in conducting hearings as it relates to possible violations of the Code.

b. Purpose of the Hearing

The purpose of a suspension hearing is to determine if the hearing officer's recommendation will be enacted, modified, or rejected. The hearing will not review any portions of the hearing officer's recommendation that have been agreed upon by the accused student and the hearing officer.

c. Preliminary Hearing

Suspension hearings are attended by the hearing panel, SRC advisor, hearing officer, and the accused student. The accused student may also have their process advisor and personal advocate, if any, in attendance. The University may have additional people in attendance for safety and logistical considerations and/or for training purposes.

Prior to the presentation of information, the hearing chair will indicate that the hearing is being recorded and that the recording is the property of the University and will serve as the sole verbatim record of the hearing.

The accused student and hearing officer may challenge members of the hearing panel for bias. The hearing chair has the responsibility to determine if a member of the panel should be removed for bias upon receiving a challenge. Bias is defined as the inability of the panel member to be fair and impartial.

The hearing chair will review the hearing officer's recommendation and indicate which portion of the recommendation is up for review during the hearing. If the accused student has not accepted responsibility for the alleged violations of the Code, the recommended sanctions and rationale will not be shared with the hearing panel until the student has either been found in violation or accepted responsibility for violating the Code.

The accused student may accept any portion of the hearing officer's recommendation that they have not previously accepted or indicate that they no longer accepts portions of the hearing officer's recommendation that had previously been accepted.

If all portions of the hearing officer's recommendation are not agreed to, the hearing will continue with reviewing all portions of the hearing officer's recommendation that have not been accepted.

d. Presentation of Information

During a suspension hearing, the accused student and hearing officer may present relevant information to the hearing panel. This includes the opportunity to make an opening statement, call and question witnesses, and make a closing statement. Additionally, the hearing panel may call and question witnesses.

Every witness may be questioned, for the purpose of clarification, by the accused student, hearing officer, and hearing panel. If the accused student chooses to provide information during the hearing, the accused student may be questioned by the hearing officer and hearing panel.

The University will make available the investigator as a witness. The accused student, hearing officer, and hearing panel may call the investigator as a witness. Questions directed to the investigator are limited to information gathered and decisions made during the investigation.

e. Hearing Panel Decision

At the conclusion of the presentation of information portion of the hearing, the hearing panel will move into deliberations. Only members of the hearing panel will be present during deliberations. The deliberations will not be recorded. The hearing panel will have up to five business days following the conclusion of the presentation of information to reach a decision. Hearing panel decisions are based on a majority vote of the hearing panel members. During deliberations the hearing panel may seek clarification from the accused student and/or hearing officer. If the hearing panel seeks clarification the accused student and hearing officer will both have the opportunity to be present.

During deliberation the hearing panel will review the portions of the hearing officer's recommendation that have not been agreed upon.

In reviewing alleged policy violations, the hearing panel may:

- i. Confirm the hearing officer's recommendations with regard to violations.
- ii. Confirm some, but not all, of the hearing officer's recommendations with regard to violations.
- iii. Reject all of the hearing officer's recommendations with regard to violations.

After a student has accepted the hearing officer's recommendations or has been found in violation of the Code, the hearing panel will determine sanctions. The accused student and hearing officer will have an opportunity to recommend sanctions and provide information to the hearing panel to consider when determining sanctions. Information that may be shared with the hearing panel includes, but is not limited to, character and impact witnesses and/or statements, whether the accused student has previously been found in violation of the Code, and sanctions imposed due to previous violations of the Code.

In determining sanctions, the hearing panel may:

- i. Confirm the recommended sanctions made by the hearing officer.
- ii. Confirm the recommended sanctions made by the accused student.
- iii. Modify the recommended sanctions made by the hearing officer and/or accused student or determine an alternative sanction.

The hearing panel will record its decision. The hearing panel, SRC advisor, accused student, and hearing officer may be present while the decision is recorded. The hearing panel's decision will include any portions of the hearing officer's recommendation that were accepted by the accused student and the decision made by the hearing panel regarding the unaccepted portion of the hearing officer's recommendation.

Suspension and/or other sanctions placed by the hearing panel are effective immediately following the notification of the student, unless otherwise noted by the hearing panel. This may initially be done verbally. The official notification of the hearing panel's decision is a suspension hearing decision letter. A suspension hearing decision letter will outline the decision regarding the alleged policy violations and the rationale used for making the decision and, if applicable, any sanctions imposed as a result of the violations and the rationale for the sanctions.

5. Appeal Process

The accused student has the right to appeal the outcome of a suspension hearing or an agreed upon recommendation.

- a. Appeals of decisions made within the suspension process are made to the VPSAD.
- b. Appeals must be made in writing to the VPSAD within one year after the notification of any suspension hearing or agreed upon recommendation decision. An appeal should contain the student's name and contact information, the date of the decision or action, the reason for appeal, and the name of the student's personal advocate, if any.
- c. Grounds for appeal may be based on such things as:

- i. New information,
  - ii. Contradictory information, and/or
  - iii. Information that indicates the student in violation was not afforded due process (SBHE 514).
- d. The reason and rationale for an appeal should be clearly stated within the appeal. The appeal should indicate the desired outcome of the appeal.
- e. An appeal will be reviewed by the VPSAD or designee. The VPSAD or designee may consider the appeal, police reports, transcripts, the outcome of any civil or criminal proceedings directly related to the appeal, and information presented during the suspension process in review of the appeal. The VPSAD or designee will make all decisions regarding the appeal.
- f. After reviewing the appeal, the VPSAD or designee will determine if a valid ground(s) for an appeal has been presented. If the VPSAD or designee determines the ground(s) are not valid the appeal will be dismissed and the previously made decision is final. Providing information that was available and not provided during the student conduct suspension process is not considered new or contradictory information.
- g. If it is determined that the ground(s) for appeal is valid, the VPSAD or designee may:
  - i. Modify the decision. The VPSAD or designee may overturn all or some of the decisions regarding violations of the Code and/or modify or vacate any sanction.
  - ii. Order a new hearing. The VPSAD or designee may void all or some of the decisions and call for a new student conduct hearing on all or some of the issues originally considered. The VPSAD or designee may provide specific instructions to those participating in the student conduct hearing regarding the rights of a student, the hearing process, and/or information that is or is not relevant to the hearing.
  - iii. Uphold the decision.
- h. The VPSAD or designee has 21 business days from the receipt date of the appeal in which to issue a written determination on the appeal. Such written determination will be forwarded to the accused student, the assistant dean of students, the hearing chair, and the SRC advisor.
- i. The action of the VPSAD or designee is final.
- j. In extraordinary circumstances when previously unknown information relative to the decision is made available the VPSAD or designee may choose to review a decision after the end of the appeal process. The VPSAD or designee will have the sole authority to determine what does and what does not constitute an extraordinary circumstance.
- k. If the appeal results in a reversal of the decision or lessening of the sanction(s), the institution may reimburse the student for any tuition and fees paid to the institution for the period of suspension which had not been previously refunded (SBHE Policy 514).

6. Title IX and Sexual Violence Process

For alleged violations of sexual harassment, as defined by Title IX, or sexual violence the process and procedures defined by the Title IX and Sexual Violence policy and the associated protocol will be used for all complaints.

The decision maker(s) in a hearing held under the Title IX and Sexual Violence policy have the authority to suspend a student if they determine it to be an appropriate sanction for a found violation.

If there are multiple alleged violations of the Code, and at least one of the alleged violations is covered by the Title IX and Sexual Violence policy, the Title IX and Sexual Violence process will be utilized. However, decisions regarding responsibility for alleged violations of the Code for alleged violations not covered by the Title IX and Sexual Violence policy will be based on the rules established within the Code.

The decision maker(s) in a Title IX and Sexual Violence hearing may determine that suspension is not an appropriate sanction. If it is determined that a student has violated the Code and that suspension is not appropriate, the decision maker(s) may refer the determination of sanctioning to a SCA.

F. Emergency Suspension and/or Conditions Process

The University is committed to providing an optimal educational environment for all of its students. Any person who has information that indicates the continued presence of a student on the University campus poses a substantial threat should provide the information to the associate dean of students. The associate dean of students or designee will convene the Behavioral Intervention Team (BIT) to review information that indicates:

- a. A student's behavior poses a significant threat of danger and/or injury to self or others,
- b. A student's behavior poses a threat of disruption to the educational process for others, and/or
- c. A student's behavior poses a threat of destruction of property.

Upon review, the BIT will provide a recommendation to the associate dean of students or designee. The BIT has the authority to recommend an emergency suspension and/or other conditions. The associate dean of students or designee has the authority to impose an emergency suspension and/or other conditions.

An emergency suspension is the immediate suspension, pending action on charges, of a student's right to be present on campus and/or to attend classes (including on-campus, on-site, practicum, or online environments). Unless otherwise noted, the student will be able to communicate with members of the University community at a distance during the emergency suspension period.

Other conditions that may be imposed include, but are not limited to:

- a. Restricting a student from physically being on campus or specific campus locations. If permitted, a student may request from their faculty member(s) consideration in adjustments of course timelines or methods of teaching or testing. Faculty member(s) are under no obligation to agree to such requested accommodations,
- b. Other actions itemized in the Restrictions or Educational Activities Sanctions and/or Interim Measures portions of the Code, and/or
- c. Requiring further evaluation of the student through appropriate experts. In such a case, the associate dean of students or designee may postpone a final decision until after further evaluation results are received.

Emergency suspension and/or other conditions are effective immediately following the notification of the student. The associate dean of students or designee may initially notify the student verbally of an emergency suspension and/or other conditions. The associate dean of students or designee will notify the student in writing within three business days.

Emergency suspension and/or other conditions remain in effect until the conclusion of the student conduct process or until lifted by the associate dean of students or designee.

A student may request, in writing to the associate dean of students, a review of an emergency suspension and/or other conditions that have been imposed. After receiving such a request, the associate dean of students or designee will meet with the student within five business days. At this time, the student may present and/or provide additional information for consideration by the associate dean of students or designee. The student may have a personal advocate during the emergency suspension review process. A process advisor will be assigned to the student upon the student requesting a review of the emergency suspension and/or conditions or upon the initiating of a student conduct process, whichever initiates first.

Upon review of the information, the associate dean of students or designee will determine if the emergency suspension and/or other conditions should remain in effect until the matter is resolved. The student will be notified in writing of the review decision within three business days. The associate dean of students or designee may notify the student of the decision verbally prior to the student receiving the written notification.

G. Informal Resolution Processes

1. Non-Conduct Resolution Process

Non-conduct resolution is an alternative method of resolving disputes and conflicts outside of other student conduct processes. It is a voluntary process requiring the participation of an SCA who operates from an impartial basis and whose primary role is to facilitate an agreement. Non-conduct resolution will typically only be used in complaints between students in which the accused student and complainant student indicate a desire for the non-conduct resolution process be utilized. It may also be used in instances where students file complaints against one another for the same incident. Involved parties within the non-conduct resolution process are the accused student, the complainant student, and any other individual identified by the SCA as an involved party.

When a non-conduct resolution is suggested, the assistant dean of students or designee will determine if that process is appropriate and will coordinate necessary arrangements. An SCA will facilitate a conversation, directly and/or indirectly, between the involved parties regarding the complaint and the desired resolution. The SCA will present a non-conduct resolution agreement to the accused student and complainant student separately. If all agree to the resolution, the SCA will provide the accused student and complainant student with the final non-conduct resolution in writing within five business days. The accused student and complainant student have five business days to request a review of the non-conduct resolution. If a review is requested, the previously shared resolution is considered not agreed upon and the non-conduct resolution process continues as such.

No finding of policy violation will be made in the non-conduct resolution process. A non-conduct resolution is a finalized agreement and considered the end of a complaint. The non-conduct resolution may be revisited and modified if the accused student or complainant student request the agreement be reviewed due to changes in circumstances regarding the implementation of the agreed upon resolution.

If the SCA determines that a non-conduct resolution cannot be agreed upon, the SCA will refer the complaint to the student conduct process for review. No information learned from the non-conduct resolution process will be used in any further process; however, if a student fails to comply with the agreed upon resolution, they may be subject to the student conduct process due to failure to comply with the non-conduct resolution agreement.

2. Endangerment

In the event that the University receives information indicating that a student may be a danger to themselves or others the University reserves the right to refer the student for a personal or behavioral evaluation. The referral may be made prior to or in lieu of a student conduct process.

A student may be referred to a personal evaluation if the information indicates that they are or may be a risk to themselves. Personal evaluations may be completed at the University Counseling Center or elsewhere with a licensed mental health care provider of the student's choice.

A student may be referred to a behavioral evaluation if the information indicates that they are or may be a risk to themselves and/or others. Behavioral evaluations are not available at the University Counseling Center, so they must be completed elsewhere with a licensed mental health care provider of the student's choice.

Evaluations are considered complete once the provider has informed the referring office that the student has met all of the provider's recommendations. Failure to complete a referral in a timely manner may result in a student conduct process and/or the student being prohibited from registering. If a student has already pre-registered and fails to complete the referral in a timely manner, the student's classes may be canceled.

A student may elect to proceed to a student conduct process instead of completing a personal or behavioral evaluation. The student may receive a similar referral as a sanction through the student conduct process if the student is found in violation of the Code.

H. Interim and Support Measures

An SCA may enact and interim and support measures during a student conduct process in the best interest of the academic experience and well-being of members of the University community. Interim measures may be placed during the investigative phase of the student conduct process. Interim measures may also be placed during a period of time where an individual is deciding whether or not to file a formal complaint. This period is typically less than 30 days. Interim measures may also stay in place after a formal complaint has been filed and prior to the start of the investigative phase if there is a delay. All interim measures will be removed upon the completion of the student conduct process.

Interim measures include, but are not limited to:

- a. Alter an academic schedule and/or coordinate arrangements with instructors to assist in offsetting potential academic problems;
- b. No Contact Directive;
- c. Restriction(s) on access to all or to specified campus facilities, buildings, or other locations; services; or events;
- d. University housing transfer, restricted access within university housing, restricted access to dining services, and removal and/or ban from university housing and/or dining services for a specified period of time.
- e. Restriction(s) on driving on or parking in University-controlled streets, roads, and parking lots; and/or
- f. Emergency Suspension.

The University may also offer supportive measures to those involved in the student conduct process or who have brought information forward regarding a possible complaint.

I. Sanctions

If a student is found in violation of the Code the student is subject to any, and all, sanctions imposed through the student conduct process.

1. Status Sanctions

- a. Written Reprimand. Written reprimand refers to official censure of a student's conduct in violation of a regulation of the University community. A written reprimand indicates no ongoing status change for the student.
- b. Warning Probation. Warning probation indicates that further violations of the Code may result in more severe disciplinary action. Warning probation is imposed in conjunction with other sanctions for the period of time that other sanctions are pending. Upon completion of all pending sanctions or one calendar year, whichever comes first, the student is automatically removed from warning probation.
- c. Conduct Probation. Conduct probation indicates that further violations of the Code may result in suspension. Conduct probation is imposed for a period of not more than one year and the student is removed from conduct probation automatically when the imposed period expires.

2. Restrictions or Educational Activities Sanctions

The SCA or hearing panel may impose additional sanctions. Such sanctions may include, but are not limited, to:

- a. No Contact Directive. A directive to refrain from any intentional contact, direct, or indirect, with one or more designated persons or group(s) through any means, including personal contact, e-mail, telephone, or through third parties. Failure to adhere to a no contact directive may result in further disciplinary action.
- b. Suspension of or restriction(s) on access to all or to specified campus facilities, buildings, or other locations; services; or events.
- c. University housing transfer, restricted access within university housing, restricted access to dining services, and removal and/or ban from university housing and/or dining services for a specified period of time.
- d. Restitution for cleaning, replacing, or restoring a specific area or thing when loss or damage was a result of the student's disciplinary violation.
- e. Referral for an assessment to a mental health provider.
- f. Mandated participation in one or more campus or community activities, lectures, service, and/or workshops.

In student conduct processes involving student organizations, the SCA or hearing panel may impose sanctions that include but are not limited to:

- a. Restrictions on activities involving the recruitment of new members.
- b. Suspension of or restriction(s) on access to all or to specified campus facilities, buildings, or other locations, services, or events.
- c. Restitution for cleaning, replacing, or restoring a specific area or thing when loss or damage was a result of the organization's disciplinary violation.
- d. Mandated participation in special activities or campus events.
- e. Restrictions on, or suspension of, requesting funds from the Student Organization Funding Agency.
- f. Restrictions on, or suspension of, practices related to the solicitation of funds on campus for the support of organized activities.

3. Suspension

Suspension is a withdrawal of enrollment privileges and a ban from campus owned, leased, or controlled property and university events and activities. Student organizations that are suspended from the University will have their recognition as a student organization revoked.

Suspension may be imposed as the result of the student conduct suspension process. Suspension may be imposed in conjunction with other sanctions.

Suspension will generally be for at least the remainder of the semester in which the sanction is imposed and result in the cancelation of registration of the student. Suspension may be imposed for a specific period, up to five years, an indefinite amount of time, or permanently. If an indefinite suspension is imposed, it will be in place for a minimum of five years. A permanent suspension is referred to as an expulsion. Conditions to be met prior to reinstatement may be included with a fixed-term or indefinite suspension.

An emergency suspension may be imposed through the emergency suspension and conditions process.

4. Enhanced Sanctions for Bias-Motivated Violations

A student found in violation of the Code may receive more severe or enhanced sanctions up to, and including, suspension if the violation is determined to be motivated by bias.

Bias means behavior motivated by actual or perceived race, color, genetic information, national origin, religion, sexual orientation, gender identity, sex, age, creed, marital status, veteran's status, political belief or affiliation, or physical, mental, or medical disability of another person or group.

J. Compliance with Sanctions

1. Student Compliance with Sanctions

A student in violation is responsible for completing the sanctions imposed through the student conduct process within the timeframe stated in the decision letter. If a student does not complete the sanctions or violates the sanctions as prescribed, the student will be prohibited from registering.

If a student has already pre-registered and the sanction has not been completed, the student's registration may be canceled.

2. Student Organization Compliance with Sanctions

Student organizations that do not complete the sanctions or violate the sanctions as prescribed will no longer be considered in good standing and will not be entitled to the rights or privileges of student organizations.

3. Reinstatement Following a Suspension

Reinstatement for students following a suspension involves the following procedure:

- a. The suspended student applies in writing to the assistant dean of students for reinstatement,
- b. The assistant dean of students or designee reviews the record and ensures that the conditions (if any) for reinstatement have been satisfied and that the terms of the suspension have not been violated, and
- c. If the student has met the conditions for reinstatement and not violated the terms of the suspension the student is reinstated. The student must still complete the readmission process through the University.

Reinstatement for student organizations following a suspension involves the following procedure:

- a. The suspended student organization applies to the assistant dean of students for reinstatement,
- b. The VPSAD or designee reviews the record and ensures the conditions for reinstatement have been satisfied.

4. Reinstatement Following an Indefinite Suspension

- a. The suspended student or student organization completes Reinstatement Following a Suspension process, and
- b. The VPSAD reviews the suspended students request for reinstatement. The VPSAD may consider information such as the request from the suspended student, information provided during the student conduct suspension process, and the outcomes of any civil or criminal proceedings involving the suspended student in determining whether to reinstate a suspended student with an indefinite suspension.
- c. A suspended student may only request to be reinstated from an indefinite suspension once per semester.

K. Disciplinary Records

Disciplinary records are separate from the student's academic record. Disciplinary records are considered a part of the student's educational record. A student's disciplinary record is confidential and may not be disclosed in whole or in part except as allowed in the Educational Records section of the Code, upon written request of the student, or in response to a court order.

1. An individual student's disciplinary record consists of:
  - a. A copy of the notification letter sent to the accused student;
  - b. All documents, information, and materials admitted in the hearing or provided to the student during the student conduct process;
  - c. If applicable, the audio recording of the hearing, which is the sole official verbatim record of the hearing and is the property of the University of North Dakota; and
  - d. A copy of the decision, if applicable.
2. The result of a hearing involving a student organization is not subject to FERPA. The records of student members of student organizations are subject to FERPA. The charges, findings, and sanctions for the student organization will be considered public information. Personally identifiable information will be redacted or omitted from any disclosure document.
3. The office of record for disciplinary records is the Office of Student Rights and Responsibilities. Records are kept according to the general records retention schedule. Records are considered active until the matter is resolved. After the matter is resolved the records are retained in accordance with the general records retention schedule, currently six years following the current academic year.
4. Students who wish to review their disciplinary or hearing records may contact the Office of Student Rights and Responsibilities to schedule an appointment to conduct a review of these records.

Students who wish to challenge specific data or information in an educational record or who wish to amend their records should refer to the Educational Records section of the Code.

IV. The Use of University Facilities

It is the policy of the University to support recognized student organizations, the University community, and other individuals or groups in their presentation of events which further the missions of the University, provide opportunities for social growth and cultural understanding, and serve the recreational needs of the campus community.

The University permits the orderly use of its facilities by recognized student organizations, University-related groups, and, in some instances, non-University-related organizations to further its educational mission. For information related to access to University property refer to the Access to and Security of Campus Facilities policy.

"Facility" is defined as any University classroom, auditorium, residence hall, other building, or outdoor area. University-related activities are given precedence over the use of facilities by outside groups. For information related to what constitutes University property, contact the office of Facilities.

A. Events, Demonstrations, Fixed Exhibits and Short-Term Rentals

The University reviews proposed events, demonstrations, fixed exhibits, and short-term rentals to ensure that they do not represent an unreasonable risk to participants, other members of the campus community, or University property. The review is view-point and content neutral. For information regarding the review of events, demonstrations, fixed exhibits and short-term rentals and guidance regarding what events needs to go through the review process refer to the Events, Demonstrations, Fixed Exhibits and Short-Terms Rentals policy.

B. Solicitation Policy

1. Solicitation is to include the sale or offer for sale of any property or service and/or receipt of or request for any gift or contribution.
2. No solicitation may be conducted in any building or structure on the campus of the University except by the agents or employees of the University acting in the course and scope of their agency or employment, or by recognized student organizations or renters of space within the Memorial Union. Solicitors' actions must be in accordance with this section and University policy.
  - a. In the case of the Memorial Union, the executive director of the Memorial Union or designee may permit on- or off-campus persons, groups or organizations to reserve, lease, and/or use portions of the building for the purpose of selling products and/or services to the campus community.
  - b. In the case of requested solicitation outside of the Memorial Union, please refer to the Events, Demonstrations, Fixed Exhibits and Short-Term Rentals process.
3. Solicitation must be conducted in a way that:
  - a. Is in keeping with the educational mission of the University and complies with other policies and procedures contained in the Code.
  - b. Will not disturb or interfere with the regular academic or institutional programs or other programs being conducted on the campus.
  - c. Will not interfere with the free and unimpeded flow of pedestrian or vehicular traffic on sidewalks, streets, or within buildings.

- d. Will not impede entrance to or egress from campus buildings, or into, from, or through common areas of campus buildings.
  - e. Will not harass, embarrass, or intimidate the person or persons being solicited.
  - f. Will create no conflict with contractual obligations of the University.
  - g. When in the Memorial Union, the sale or distribution of food items will comply with Memorial Union guidelines.
  - h. Off-campus persons, groups, or organizations not affiliated with the University must be properly licensed to sell the products and/or services being offered.
  - i. Conforms to all applicable state and federal laws and city ordinances, including those related to charitable gaming (raffles, etc.) when applicable.
4. Recognized student organizations may collect membership fees or dues or conduct other solicitation defined in this section at activities of such organizations scheduled in accordance with the facilities-use regulations outlined in this section.
  5. Admission fees may be collected for an exhibition, movie, or other program that is sponsored by the University, a recognized faculty group, or a recognized student organization and that is scheduled in accordance with the facilities-use regulations in this section.
  6. Regulations for sales:
    - a. All activities involving University funds or services are subject to University and state audit and may be subject to city and/or state sales tax.
    - b. Cash boxes may be checked out from the Student Involvement Center.

C. Donated Goods Policy

Donated goods such as T-shirts, pamphlets, and/or food, may be donated to the University or to University organizations as long as the following conditions are met:

1. The donating entities must be licensed by the city of Grand Forks or by the states of North Dakota or Minnesota.
2. There can be no out-of-pocket or in-kind charge to the University, organization, or consumers of the products.
3. All requests to donate goods to the University for use by recognized student organizations must abide by University policies.
4. Goods donated must be distributed on campus by University employees, representatives, and/or students but not by representatives of the donor.
5. No goods or funds may be donated to recognized student organizations by makers, dealers, or purveyors of alcoholic beverages.

V. Student Organizations

Involvement in co-curricular activities provides students the opportunity to engage in experiences that will enhance their personal and academic development; thus the University supports and encourages involvement in student organizations as part of their total educational experience.

Because the University so firmly believes in the educational benefits of co-curricular involvement, it provides facilities and professional staff expertise to support and enhance the experiences of the students involved in campus organizations. Students are encouraged to utilize staff members in achieving the mission and goals of their organizations.

The University provides support to each recognized student organization regardless of the nature of the organization's activity and/or ideology. Organizations are independent units which exist on the UND campus and are not considered agents of the University. However, organizations are advised that records related to certain activities carried on in furtherance of the University's educational mission may be subject to North Dakota's open records laws, especially where such activities constitute public business or a governmental function. Relevant factors may include whether the organization is supported entirely by public funds, and whether courses for which academic credit is awarded are being administered by the organization.

A. UND Student Government

UND Student Government is the representational body of the entire student population.

1. The structure and operation of Student Government is established in a written constitution which has been approved by a vote of the general student body and by the president of the University. Student Government does not fall into the category of a recognized student organization as defined in this document.
2. Student Government is held to the same procedural and operational standards as are other units of the University. Student Government has a responsibility to allocate student activity fees in a fair and impartial manner in such a way that the welfare and interests of all students are considered. Allocation of funds may not be used as a device of censorship or to suppress viewpoints or ideas.
3. The VPSAD designates an advisor to Student Government. The advisor is the supervisor for human resources and employment actions relating to all students appointed to and/or hired to fill paid positions within Student Government.

B. Association of Residence Halls (ARH)

ARH is the representational body for all students living in UND residence halls. Residents of each hall are represented directly by their Hall Government, which elects representatives to serve on various boards. The ARH Policy Board, on which each Hall Government selects a representative to serve, is ARH's overall governing council and makes recommendations on residence hall policies, approves Hall Government and ARH Board constitutions, and represents the interests of students living in UND residence halls. The Association of Residence Halls does not fall into the category of a recognized student organization as defined in this document.

C. Recognized Student Organizations

Recognized student organizations are those student groups that have completed the process for becoming a recognized student organization at UND, remain active, and comply with the forming guidelines and the responsibilities of recognized student organizations.

D. Establishing a New Student Organization

1. Forming a student organization (other than a fraternity or sorority):

- a. The prospective student organization member(s) indicate their intent to form a student organization by completing the intent to organize form. The form must indicate the names of at least five current UND students who will be members as well as the name of the faculty or staff member who will serve as the organization's advisor.
- b. Staff will:
  - i. Provide interested students forming guidelines,
  - ii. Explain the recognition process, and
  - iii. Assist the group in the recognition process.
- c. The prospective student organization member(s) must submit a constitution for their proposed organization. The constitution must include:
  - i. An acknowledgement that all officers and voting members must be current UND students.
  - ii. A reference that no academic credit will be available based on membership in the organization.
  - iii. A non-discrimination statement must be included in each constitution that conforms to one of the following standards:
    1. Option 1. Inclusion of a Non-Discrimination Statement.

Membership in [this organization] is without regard to race, color, genetic information, national origin, religion, sexual orientation, gender identity, sex, age, creed, marital status, veteran's status, political belief, or affiliation or physical, mental, or medical disability unrelated to the purpose of the organization. (Federal law through Title IX permits fraternities and sororities to remain as single sex organizations provided there is equal opportunity to join similar organizations.)
    2. Option 2. Inclusion of a modified Non-Discrimination Statement.

Generally, no student is to be excluded from membership or participation on the basis of race, color, genetic information, national origin, religious status or historic religious affiliation, sexual orientation, age, marital status, veteran's status, or physical, mental or medical disability unrelated to the purpose of the organization, and except when exempt under Title IX, sex, gender, or gender identity. However, groups may select their members on the basis of commitment to a set of beliefs (e.g., religious or political beliefs) and may limit membership and participation in the organization. Such a group may perceive an incongruence between their key principles or beliefs and elements of the Non-Discrimination Statement.
    3. Option 3. Petition for Exemption

The prospective student organization member(s) may petition the consideration of their constitution for an exemption from including one or more populations listed in the Non-Discrimination Statement.

The student organization officer will hear the petition and respond to the group representative(s) whether one or more populations may be excluded from the Non-Discrimination Statement, which will otherwise appear in the prospective group's constitution. A decision will be rendered within 30 business days. Criteria for such a decision includes substantiation of the claim for redress as demonstrated in the organization's mission statement, statement of purpose, and/or founding documents, including the documents of any national affiliate to which the group may subscribe.

- d. Upon approval of the newly formed organization's constitution, the group will become a UND recognized student organization.

2. Forming a fraternity or sorority

Students wishing to establish a chapter of a national fraternity or sorority should consult the coordinator for fraternity and sorority life. In addition to becoming a recognized student organization, the prospective group must follow the procedures outlined by the Interfraternity or Panhellenic Council. The coordinator for fraternity and sorority life and the appropriate council may modify the procedures as needed.

E. Privileges of Student Organizations

A recognized student organization may use:

1. The University's name in the title of the organization.
2. University facilities per departmental or building specific policies.
3. The University's trademarked/copyrighted logos and images with University approval.
4. An on-campus financial account.

F. Responsibilities of Recognized Student Organizations

A recognized student organization has the responsibility to:

1. Register each fall semester by the established deadline.
2. Maintain an advisor who is a full-time faculty or staff member.
3. Notify the Student Involvement Center of any changes to the officer list and/or advisor within two weeks of any changes.
4. Maintain a current copy of their approved constitution in the Student Involvement Center.
5. Keep their on-campus financial account in good standing.
6. Abide by the UND Equal Opportunity Policy statement.
7. Abide by the laws of the state of North Dakota, the policies and procedures of the SBHE, city ordinances of Grand Forks, and the policies and procedures, including those found in the Code. If the organization's property is the site of activity that is in violation of the Code, then the organization is subject to University sanctions.

If a student organization fails to comply with the requirements of a recognized student organization the student organization may:

1. Be designated as inactive.
2. Be dissolved if the student organization remains inactive for two consecutive years.

The University will notify the president and advisor of record of the recognized student organization of any status change for the student organization.

G. Status of Recognized Student Organizations

1. Good Standing. A recognized student organization will be considered in good standing when it fulfills the responsibilities of recognized student organizations.
2. Inactive. A recognized student organization will be designated inactive if it fails to comply with the responsibilities of recognized student organizations.
3. Dissolved. If an organization fails to comply with the responsibilities of recognized student organizations for two consecutive years, it will be designated dissolved and no longer recognized by the University and no longer eligible to receive the privileges of student organizations. Additionally:
  - a. Any existing funds in an on-campus account of a dissolved student organization will be transferred to a general student leadership account when the organization is dissolved.
  - b. Should a dissolved organization complete the recognition process within 12 months from the date of dissolution, funds that were in the on-campus account at the time of dissolution will be returned to the organization. Beyond twelve months the funds will not be returned.
  - c. Members of a dissolved student organization who wish to become a recognized group again must apply through the establishing a new student organization process.

VI. Student Records

Student records maintained by the University fall into three general categories: directory information, educational records, and treatment records. As custodian of student records in compliance with the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) of 1974, as amended, the University assumes the trust and obligation to ensure protection of student records which includes maintaining the confidentiality of student records. The University has developed policy guidelines for access to the student record with respect to the rights of eligible students and parents of dependent eligible students. All information contained in University records is considered confidential, except for directory information which may be released publicly in printed, electronic, or other form. The administrative procedures outlined in this section are to be complied to by University personnel who have or accumulate student records that are in a personally identifiable form. The term "student" in this section means an eligible student under FERPA (a student enrolled at UND). Students may review a copy of FERPA and the regulations at the following offices: University Registrar, Student Rights and Responsibilities, Vice President of Academic Affairs, Vice President for Student Affairs and Diversity, and Equal Opportunity & Title IX.

A. Directory Information

1. Directory information is information concerning a student that may be released publicly. It includes the following: student name*, hometown (city, state), campus email address, height, weight, and photos of athletic team members, major field of study (all declared majors), minor field of student (all declared minors), class level, dates of attendance, enrollment status (withdrawn, half-time, full-time), names of previous institutions attended, participation in officially recognized activities and sports, honors/awards received, degree earned (all degrees earned), date degree earned (dates of all degrees earned), degree photos, photographs and video recordings of students in public or non-classroom settings (photographs from classrooms or class-related activities are not directory information).

2. Under FERPA, students have the right to request directory information not to be made public by notifying the Office of the Registrar. Students should be aware that information might be collected for use in publications in advance of printing. In order to effectively suppress release of directory information, students should restrict their information as early in the term as possible. To restrict release of all directory information, students must personally contact the Office of the Registrar. The University receives many inquiries for directory information from a variety of sources including, but not limited to, prospective employers, other colleges and universities, graduate schools, licensing agencies, government agencies, news media, parents, friends, and relatives. Students should consider very carefully the consequences of their decision to withhold release of any or all directory information items. Campuses have no responsibility to contact students for subsequent permission to release directory information after it is restricted. The University will honor student requests to withhold directory information until the student specifically and officially requests to lift these restrictions. To reverse existing directory restriction, students must personally contact the Office of the Registrar.

B. Educational Records

1. Educational records are those records, files, documents, and other materials which contain information directly related to a student and are maintained by the University or a party acting on behalf of the University. Educational records include more than academic records. Educational records, with the exception of those designated as directory information, may not be released without the written consent of the student to any individual, agency, or organization other than the following:
  - a. School officials who have legitimate educational interests;
    - i. A school official is someone employed by the University in an administrative, supervisory, academic, research, or support staff position; a person or company with whom the University has contracted (such as an attorney, auditor, or collection agent); a person or organization acting as an official agent of the University and performing a business function, or service on behalf of the institution; a person serving on the State Board of Higher Education; a student serving on an official or recognized committee, such as a disciplinary or grievance committee; or assisting another school official in performing their tasks.
    - ii. A school official has a legitimate educational interest if the official needs to access the educational record in order to fulfill their responsibility on behalf of the University. This means performing a task that is specified in their position description or contract.
  - b. Officials of other institutions in which the student seeks or intends to enroll.
  - c. Authorized representatives of the comptroller general, the secretary of education, the administrative head of an educational agency, state education authorities, or the attorney general when investigating government sponsored or affiliated programs.
  - d. Officials responsible for acting in conjunction with the student's application for, or receipt of, financial aid.
  - e. Authorized individuals or organizations conducting studies for or on behalf of the University for the purpose of developing, validating, or administering predictive tests; for administering student aid programs; and for improving instruction. These studies must be conducted in such a manner as will not permit the personal identification of students and their parents by persons other than representatives of the University or such organizations. This information is to be destroyed when it is no longer needed for the purpose for which it was collected. Authorization for such activities will come from the appropriate vice president.

- f. Accrediting organizations for purposes necessary to carry out their functions.
  - g. A complainant student of discriminatory or harassing behaviors or other act of violence or non-forcible sexual offense, of the results of any disciplinary proceeding regarding an alleged perpetrator of that act (see Department of Education, "Dear Colleague Letter," April 4, 2011, 20 USC § 1232g\(b\)\(6\); and 34 CFR § 99.31\(a\)\(13\)).
  - h. Persons in an emergency, if the knowledge of information, in fact, is necessary to protect the health or safety of the student or others.
  - i. Parental notification for alcohol or drug offenses by a student under the age of 21. University policy regarding parental notification is found in the Annual Security and Fire Safety Report.
  - j. In response to a lawfully issued court order or subpoena.
2. The disclosure of educational records to family members and in response to subpoenas will be carried out as follows:
    - a. University officials are expected to comply with lawfully issued judicial orders and subpoenas. A reasonable attempt will be made to notify a student of the University's intention to comply with court orders, unless directed otherwise by court order.
    - b. Spouses or other family members of students may receive student record information when a written consent form is submitted by the student.
    - c. Records of former students are confidential except for directory information. The University may release without written consent directory information on any student not currently enrolled unless that student has requested otherwise.
    - d. The records of deceased students may be released or disclosed at the request of a parent, personal representative, or other qualified representative of the student's estate, or pursuant to a court order or subpoena.
  3. Upon written request, the University will provide student access to a student's own educational records with the exception of:
    - a. Financial aid records of the student's parents or guardian;
    - b. Confidential letters of recommendation when the student has signed a waiver of right-of-access, or letters of recommendation written prior to January 1, 1975, providing such letters are used only for the purpose for which they were specifically intended.
  4. Students may waive their access to records.
    - a. A student may sign a waiver of right-of-access to confidential recommendations concerning admission, application for employment, and/or application for an honor or honorary recognition. In such cases the student, upon request, will be notified of the names of individuals making such confidential recommendations. These recommendations are to be used solely for the purpose for which they were intended.
    - b. In the event a student refuses to sign a waiver of access, such an act may not be considered as a condition for admission, receipt of financial aid or any other service or benefit from the University.
  5. Since the University does not maintain a central repository for student records, inquiries for access to specific educational records should be made to the University office or agency responsible for a particular record. Requests for assistance in locating individual educational records may be directed to the Office of the Vice President of Student Affairs and Diversity.

Within a reasonable time period, University personnel must produce for inspection all records, with the exception of those previously noted, which pertain to that student. Access to records should occur as soon as reasonably practicable, but in no instance more than 45 days after the request. Students seeking access to their records are subject to the following procedure:

- a. Student must provide proper identification;
  - b. Students are free to examine the content of the record;
  - c. No materials are to be removed from the record; and
  - d. Designated staff or personnel should review and interpret the contents of the record with the student.
6. A student has the right to ask the University to amend the education record if the student believes the records relating to the student contain information that is inaccurate, misleading, or in violation of the student's right of privacy. The student should write the University official responsible for the record, clearly identify the part of the record they want changed, and specify why it is inaccurate. When a student has challenged specific data or information and has requested amendment of the record:
- a. The designated department or staff member may agree to amend selected information; or,
  - b. In the event the designated department or staff member does not concur with the student's request to amend the information, the student should follow the procedures developed by the department and/or college in which the department is located.
Note: In the event of a challenge to a grade, the student must first follow the Academic Grievance procedures defined in the Code.
  - c. If after following the above procedures, resolution has not occurred (that is, the student still feels the record is inaccurate or misleading), the student may submit, in writing, a request for a hearing to the University Registrar.
  - d. Hearings will be conducted by a University official who does not have a direct interest in the outcome of the hearing. The student will be afforded a full and fair opportunity to present evidence relevant to the reasons for the challenge. The hearing officer will render a decision, in writing, noting the reasons and summarizing the evidence presented within a reasonable period of time after the challenge is filed.
  - e. Should the appeal be in favor of the student, the record will be amended accordingly. Should the request be denied, the student may choose to place a statement with the record commenting on the accuracy of the information in the record and/or setting forth any basis for inaccuracy. When disclosed to an authorized party, the record will always include the student's statement and notice of the board's decision, as long as the student's record is maintained by the University.
7. For records to be released other than as outlined in the Code, there must be a written consent form completed by the student.
8. If the student has previously signed a waiver releasing their records and wishes to revoke this waiver, the student must make a request in writing at the Registrar's Office to revoke the waiver.
9. Each University office which releases student records must maintain permanently in the student's file a signed written form indicating the date of release for records (except when released to University personnel) and the legitimate educational or other interest that each person, University employee, agency, or organization had in seeking the information.
10. Student record information can be transferred to a third party for an approved purpose only on the condition that the third party will not in turn release the record to another party. This third party limitation will be noted on all information released to the third party.

11. Areas of the University maintaining educational records are required to have a copy of their records policy available to students.
12. Disclosure of University of North Dakota graduation rates: The University of North Dakota graduation rate information is available online at: <https://und.edu/academics/registrar/graduation-rates.html>. A paper copy of this report is also available by calling the Office of the Registrar at 701.777.2711.

C. Treatment Records

1. A student's medical records are exempt from FERPA's definition of education records so long as they meet the definition of "treatment records." Treatment records are records that are made or maintained by a health care professional; are used only for your medical or psychological treatment; and are available only to treatment providers. Treatment records are not subject to the HIPAA Privacy Rule's restrictions on use and disclosure.
2. Treatment records are maintained by the University under the guiding principles of FERPA. Treatment records will only be released as allowed in this section or after receiving a written request from the student.
3. A student's treatment records are confidential and are available to the student at the student's request through the office that maintains the record. The University may arrange for a healthcare provider to be with a student when the student reviews their treatment records in order to explain the records and/or answer any questions.
4. HIV, drug and alcohol, and other case sensitive information will not be disclosed without an explicit request from the student. A special release of information is required which authorizes the specific information to be disclosed.
5. FERPA regulations list other situations in which the University may disclose a student's medical or treatment records without prior written consent. See section 2(1)(a)-(j) above. If a student's medical or treatment record is released for any purpose other than treatment, the released record becomes an education record and is released according to FERPA. The following are examples where the University may disclose a student's medical or treatment records without consent:
  - a. To comply with a lawfully issued court order or subpoena;
  - b. Disclosure to a court in connection with a legal proceeding involving the University and a student or the student's parents;
  - c. Disclosure in connection with a health or safety emergency if knowledge is necessary to protect the health and safety of a student or other persons
  - d. Disclosure according to North Dakota state law.
6. Contact your health care professional's office for information pertaining to patient rights and responsibilities including how your information may be shared with others.
7. In situations in which it has been determined that a student's life is in danger or in which their condition results in a danger to others, the facts pertaining to this danger may be communicated to the student's nearest responsible relative, without the student's consent, if judged necessary by the student's primary healthcare provider.

D. Law Enforcement Records

Records generated by UPD personnel are assignable into two categories: administrative and law enforcement. Some records may be assignable into both.

1. Administrative records, including those created by UPD personnel, are maintained for the benefit and purposes of the University, and include those referred to Student Rights and Responsibilities, Housing, or other offices for educational purposes, such as disciplinary action(s), are educational records.
2. Law enforcement records, which for this section are those records submitted to the states attorney's office (NDCC, Chapter 11-16) or other criminal court division. Law enforcement records are subject to the North Dakota open records laws (NDCC, Chapter 44).

E. Official Transcripts of Academic Records

1. The registrar compiles, maintains, and administers official transcripts of record.
2. Each student's official transcript of record may include, but is not limited to, the following information:
  - a. Legal name of student;
  - b. Date of birth;
  - c. Name of the high school attended and the year of graduation;
  - d. Transfer credits or summary of credits accepted in transfer, if any;
  - e. Courses taken, hours completed, grades received, grading system, and grade point average;
  - f. A statement of probation/dismissal;
  - g. President's Honor Roll, Degree, Honors;
  - h. Academic degree(s) granted by the University;
  - i. Date(s) of graduation from the University.
3. The Office of the Registrar will send, issue, or release a student's official transcript or record only:
  - a. At the student's written request; or,
  - b. In accordance with the Student Records section of the Code.
4. A transcript or record will contain the information described in the Official Transcripts of Academic Records section of the Code, and will not be furnished in part or with information omitted or deleted.
5. The registrar maintains a register of requests for official transcripts. This register of requests is part of the student record.
6. A student who fails to pay a debt owed to the University may have their official transcript withheld until the debt is paid.
7. The president or VPSAD may withhold the issuance of an official transcript for an academic degree pending a hearing against a student who violates a rule or regulation of the University when, in the opinion of the official, the interest of the University would be served by interim action.

F. Annual Notice

The University of North Dakota gives annual notice of the following to students attending the University:

1. Rights guaranteed under the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) of 1974 as amended and this policy;
2. Locations where copies of this policy may be obtained; and
3. The right to file a complaint regarding a violation of FERPA with:
The Office of the Registrar:
264 Centennial Drive, Stop 8382 Room 201
Grand Forks, ND 58202-8382
Phone 701.777.2711
Fax: 701.777.2696
E-mail address: scott.correll@und.edu or with
The Family Policy Compliance Office, U.S. Department of Education
400 Maryland Avenue SW
Washington, DC 20202-5920
The complaint must contain specific allegations of fact giving reasonable cause to believe that a violation of the Act has occurred. The U.S. DOE will investigate each timely complaint to determine if the institution has failed to comply with the provisions of FERPA.
4. The VPSAD is responsible for ensuring that this notice is published at least once each year in this document. A copy of the current Code is available online to each student and also is available in each University office maintaining educational records.

VII. Definition of Terms

- a. Accused Student. Accused student applies to a student, or student organization, who is alleged to have violated the Code.
- b. Complainant Student. Complainant student applies to a student, or student organization, who has filed a complaint. A student may be considered a complainant student even if another member of the University community submitted the complaint itself.
- c. Faculty Member. All members of the academic staff, excluding only coaches and administrators in their capacities as coaches and administrators (SBHE Policy 605.1).
- d. Hearing Chair. A hearing chair is the member of the SRC who has been identified as the chair for a specific suspension hearing.
- e. Hearing Officer. The hearing officer is responsible for reviewing the investigation and determining recommendations on behalf of the University as it relates to alleged violations of the Code and, when applicable, sanctions. When applicable, the hearing officer is also responsible for presenting recommendations to the hearing panel. A hearing officer is a student conduct administrator.
- f. Hearing Panel. The term hearing panel means any person or group of persons who is a member of the SRC and serves on a student conduct hearing panel to make a determination as to if a violation of the Code has occurred and has the ability to impose sanctions.
- g. Investigator. If a complaint warrants an investigation the University will assign an investigator to review the complaint. The University may choose to hire an external investigator to investigate a complaint. The investigator is responsible for gathering information not for determining responsibility as it relates to possible violations of the Code.
- h. Members of the University Community (University Community). Members of the University community includes students, faculty, staff, and administrators of the University.

- i. Personal Advocate. The accused, and if applicable, complainant, student may each have one personal advocate present during all portions of the student conduct process in which the student participates. A personal advocate may, but does not need to, be an attorney. An attorney who is serving as a personal advocate is expected to follow the North Dakota Rules of Professional Conduct. If a student selects a personal advocate who is an attorney the University reserves the right to reschedule any portion of the student conduct process to ensure the University's legal representation may also be present. To assist in scheduling, the University asks that a student notify the University of their intent to have a attorney as a personal advocate.

Advocates are selected by the student. The student is responsible for sharing and communicating all information with their personal advocate unless other arrangements are made. If applicable, the student is responsible for any and all expenses associated with the personal advocate.

A student should select a personal advocate whose schedule allows attendance at a previously scheduled date and time for any portion of the student conduct process. If a student has selected a personal advocate prior to a portion of the student conduct process being scheduled, the student can provide their personal advocate's contact information and availability to the SRC advisor or the Office of Student Rights and Responsibilities for consideration in scheduling.

If the personal advocate is unable to attend a previously scheduled student conduct proceeding, the student is encouraged to inform the SRC advisor or the Office of Student Rights and Responsibilities that their personal advocate is unable to attend. Upon request the student conduct proceeding may be rescheduled.

In any student conduct process the personal advocate has the right to provide support, guidance, and advice to the student. Personal advocates may not disrupt student conduct proceeding.

In a student conduct suspension process the personal advocate has the right to represent the student. Representing the student includes making opening and closing statements, calling and questioning witnesses, and providing support, guidance, and advise to the student. The student may limit their personal advocate's role within the student conduct suspension process. A personal advocate cannot serve in another role during the student conduct process.

- j. Process Advisor. A process advisor is appointed to an accused student and, if applicable, the complainant student involved in a suspension process. The process advisor helps the accused student understand the suspension process, assist the student in preparing for the process, coordinates interim measures, and serves in a support capacity during the process. The process advisor has no standing in the process, does not represent the student in the process, does not have speaking privileges during a hearing, and must not disrupt the process.

A student may request a different process advisor. Such a request should be made in writing and directed to the SRC advisor.

- k. Student. For purposes of this Code, the term student applies to all persons taking courses at and/or receiving instruction through the University, whether credit hours are earned, full-time or part time, pursuing undergraduate, graduate, non-degree, or professional studies.

The term student includes all persons who withdraw after allegedly violating the Code, who are not enrolled for a particular term but have a continuing relationship with the University, who have been notified of their acceptance for admission, or who are living in University residence facilities designated for students regardless of their current enrollment status.

The term student includes both a student acting as an individual and to students acting in a group and/or a student organization, unless otherwise noted.

- l. Student Conduct Administrator (SCA). A student conduct administrator is any person authorized to determine whether a student has violated the Code and, if so, impose sanctions.

The Office of Student Rights and Responsibilities staff and Housing staff responsible for residence life are designated as SCAs by the assistant dean of students on a permanent basis. The assistant dean of students may designate other University employees as SCAs as needed.

- m. Student Relations Committee (SRC). The SRC is a committee authorized by the VPSAD to serve as hearing panel members and determine whether a student has violated the Code and to apply sanctions that may be imposed when a rules violation has been committed.
- n. Student Relation Committee Advisor (SRC Advisor). The SRC advisor is present at all suspension hearings in order to see that the process is followed and advise the SRC and the hearing chair of the suspension hearing on procedural questions. The SRC advisor may also assist the hearing chair in identifying which information is relevant to the hearing panel.
- o. Student Organization. The term student organization means any number of persons who have complied with the formal requirements for University recognition/registration.
- p. Student Organization Advisor. The term student organization advisor means a person registered in the Student Involvement Center to act in an advisory role for a student organization.
- q. University Premises. The term University premises means all land, buildings, facilities, and other property in possession of, or owned, used, or controlled by the University (including adjacent streets and sidewalks).
- r. Witness. Anyone who is believed to have information that that may be relevant to a determination of violation of the Code.

VIII. APPENDICES

A. Dismissal/Grievance Procedures for Student Employees

1. Dismissal Procedure

If a student employee's performance proves unsatisfactory, the supervisor will advise the student of the dissatisfaction and indicate what improvements are necessary. If the problem is not resolved, termination procedures may be initiated and the student employee notified of the release. Departments must notify the student of unsatisfactory performance due to inefficiency, inability to perform an assigned task, tardiness, etc. and provide a minimum of two weeks for the problem to be resolved before termination procedures are initiated. However, a student employee may be dismissed immediately from employment without prior notice for just cause including dishonesty, insubordination, gross negligence, or conduct unbecoming an employee in which the health, welfare, or safety of another employee/employer, person, or the workplace is negatively affected.

If a student employee feels they have been treated unfairly or has a justifiable complaint that could not be resolved through a discussion with the immediate supervisor, the student should contact the supervisor's supervisor. The supervisor's supervisor will attempt, through discussion with the student employee and/or the supervisor, to resolve the grievance and file documentation and their decision is final.

2. Informal Grievance Procedure

If a student employee feels they have been treated unfairly or has a justifiable complaint that could not be resolved through a frank discussion with the immediate supervisor, the student should contact the supervisor's supervisor or the Student Financial Aid Office. The director of student financial aid or designee within the Student Financial Aid Office will attempt, through discussion with the student employee and/or the supervisor, to resolve the grievance and file documentation.

3. Formal Grievance Procedure

If, after these conversations, the aggrieved student is still not satisfied, the student may pursue the formal grievance procedure. The vice provost of strategic enrollment management (VPSEM) or designee will act as a facilitator to assist in the grievance procedure. The student employee's first step is to submit a written grievance to the VPSEM within five business days after the contact with the Student Financial Aid Office relative to the informal grievance discussion.

The VPSEM or designee will assemble the Student Employee Grievance Board within 10 business days of the receipt of the written grievance. The Board will be diversified and comprised of three members appointed by the VPSEM or designee and will consist of two staff and/or faculty members and one student.

All proceedings of the Student Employee Grievance Board will be administered by the VPSEM or designee. The Student Employee Grievance Board will meet with the persons concerned in the case. The Board meeting must be closed unless the aggrieved student employee requests an open meeting. The student employee and the department involved may be present and each may have one representative of their choosing present during the testimony. Each party may have other individuals provide information at the meeting. The names of those to present information must be submitted in writing to the VPSEM or designee at least two business days prior to the meeting and the relevance of each person should be stated.

Within five business days after the meeting, the Student Employee Grievance Board will forward written notification of its decision to the student employee, the department involved, and the VPSEM or designee.

If the student employee is not satisfied with the Student Employee Grievance Board's decision, the student should, within five business days of the Grievance Board's decision, submit a written appeal to the VPSEM. Within ten business days after receiving the appeal, a final decision by the VPSEM will be made. The VPSEM will announce the decision by a written communication to the student employee, the employing department, and the director of student financial aid.

B. Academic Concerns/Information/Freedom

The University's commitments to academic quality and integrity, as well as to academic freedom, rest upon honesty and fairness in all aspects of scholarly endeavor. Faculty must test, grade, and review student work in a manner that is fair and reasonable, and students must maintain scholastic honesty beyond reproach. Disputes that arise about fairness and honesty are best resolved through open and sincere communication among all parties — students, faculty, committees, and administrators. This section on academic concerns addresses procedures for resolving academic grievances, instances of scholastic dishonesty, and concerns about communications proficiency.

1. Academic Grievances

a. Definition

The term "academic grievance" is defined as: a statement expressing a complaint, resentment, or accusation lodged by a student about an academic circumstance (such as grading, testing, quality of instruction) which is thought by the student to be unfair.

Academic issues subject to grievance procedures differ from those subject to the academic petition process. The petition process includes a request by the student to have a University, college, or program requirement waived or modified. It may include the right to appeal under circumstances outlined in the petition process. The substance of petitions and appeals is under the jurisdiction of individual colleges, schools, programs, or designated University committees. If a student thinks that a petition has not been handled fairly, the student may initiate a grievance based upon unfair treatment, but not upon the substantive issue.

b. The Grievance Process

- i. Each undergraduate, graduate, and professional school or college shall have written procedures for academic grievances. Unless a school or college has specified a shorter time, a student must initiate a grievance within 120 calendar days from the recording of the final grade (including an "Incomplete") in the course in which the grievance arose. These procedures are to begin with discussion between the grieving student and the Faculty Member, committee, or administrator with whom the student has a grievance. If the grievance is not resolved at this stage, then the student may advance the grievance through the procedures of the college or school in which the grievance originated. (In grievances brought by Graduate School students that involve Graduate School policies, the relevant school is the Graduate School.)
- ii. Grievances not resolved at the level of the academic unit may be brought by any of the parties to the Student Academic Standards Committee (Registrar's Office) within 30 calendar days of the final decision of the academic unit (college/school). If the grievance results from an action of a committee not associated with a specific college, it may be taken directly to the Student Academic Standards Committee. Grievances must be presented in writing to the chair of the committee. This written statement should describe the grievance, indicate how it affects the individual or unit, and include the remedy sought from the committee. All documents pertinent to the review must accompany the grievance. It will be the committee's charge to review the academic grievance, consult with all parties significantly involved in the grievance, tape record its proceedings, and make a final decision within a reasonable length of time (not to exceed 20 school days, except upon agreement of the parties or the inability of the committee to make a quorum) after the grievance has been filed. All submitted documents will be made a permanent part of the student's educational record. A copy of the decision will be sent to the originator of the grievance, the dean of the unit involved, and those against whom the grievance originated. This committee has the authority to resolve the grievance by such actions as upholding an earlier decision, requiring a re-examination or review, and, in extreme cases, changing a grade. The committee, however, has no authority to take or recommend disciplinary action in these cases either with faculty, administrators, or students or to require permanent changes in classroom, administrative, or committee procedures. The decision of this committee is the final step in the University Academic Grievance process.
- iii. Students who wish to challenge specific data or information in an educational record or who wish to amend their records should refer to the Educational Records section of the Code for procedures.

2. Communications Proficiency of Faculty

Since some instructional personnel do not have native or native-like English-language proficiency, students may experience difficulty understanding them. Students are encouraged to make an effort to become accustomed to an unfamiliar accent or dialect, but if the difficulty is pervasive, should act before the term is so advanced that resolution becomes difficult. In this circumstance, students may register a complaint by initiating the following procedure.

- i. The student has multiple points of entry for reporting a perceived problem. Concerns about an instructor's English language proficiency are investigated by the associate provost. The initial report may be made to the Office of the Provost, the Office of Student Rights and Responsibilities, or to the dean of the college, or the chair/director of the department/school in which the course is offered. Problems should be reported within 15 working days (three weeks) of the beginning of a term, after the student has made an effort to become accustomed to an unfamiliar accent or dialect but before the term is so advanced that resolution becomes difficult. In all cases, the Provost's Office must be notified when a student has registered a complaint.
- ii. It is the department chair's responsibility, in conjunction with the provost or designee, to determine the extent of the perceived problem (e.g., how many students are experiencing difficulty) and then to provide a solution. Suggested solutions include, but are not limited to, moving the student(s) to a different section, replacing the instructor, or offering the student(s) with difficulty special tutorial assistance along with regular participation in the class.
- iii. Students who believe that the resolution of their complaint was unfair have a right to file an academic grievance. Procedures for filing grievances are specified in Academic Grievances section of the Code.
- iv. The complete Policy on Communications Proficiency can be obtained from the offices of the Provost or the Vice President for Student Affairs and Diversity or the Office of Student Rights and Responsibilities.

3. Academic Probation/Dismissal Policy

a. Undergraduate

- i. Any student who does not maintain minimum academic requirements is subject to placement on probation or to suspension or dismissal from the University.
- ii. See Undergraduate Probation, Suspension, and Dismissal Policy in the Undergraduate Academic Information section of the Academic Catalog.

b. Graduate

- i. Please refer to the Graduate Academic Catalog section on Academic Standards.

4. Financial Aid Information

a. Federal Student Financial Aid Penalties for Drug Law Violations

Upon enrollment, the Higher Education Opportunities Act (HEOA) mandates each institution must provide written notice that advises the student that a conviction (while receiving financial aid) of any offense involving the possession or sale of illegal drugs will result in a loss of federal student eligibility.

When completing the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA), question 23 asks if the students have ever been convicted of a drug-related offense. Answering the question untruthfully could result in fines, imprisonment, or both.

Convictions count only if they were for an offense that occurred during a period of enrollment for which the student was receiving federal aid. A conviction does not count if it was reversed, set aside, removed from the student's record, or if the conviction occurred when the student was a juvenile (unless the student was tried as an adult).

According to the law, the following chart indicates the period of ineligibility for federal student aid. (A conviction of sale of drugs includes conviction for conspiring to sell drugs.)

	Possession of Illegal Drugs	Sale of Illegal Drugs
First Offense	One year from date of conviction	Two years from date of conviction
Second Offense	Two years from date of conviction	Indefinite period
Third Offense	Indefinite period

A student regains eligibility the day after the period of ineligibility ends or when they successfully complete a qualified drug rehabilitation program that includes passing two unannounced drug tests given by such a program. Further drug convictions may affect future financial aid eligibility.

Standards for a qualified drug rehabilitation

A qualified drug rehabilitation program must include at least two unannounced drug tests and must satisfy at least one of the following requirements:

- i. Be qualified to receive funds directly from a federal, state, or local government program;
- ii. Be qualified to receive payment directly or indirectly from a federally or state-licensed insurance company;
- iii. Be administered or recognized by a federal, state, or local government agency or court; or
- iv. Be administered or recognized by a federal or state-licensed hospital, health clinic, or medical doctor company.

b. Additional Financial Aid Information

For more general information regarding financial aid please contact One-Step Student Services, 701.777.1234.

5. Academic Freedom (SBHE 401.1)

a. General Principles

The primary responsibility of the academic community is to provide for the enrichment of intellectual experience. Essential to the realization of this ideal is a free and open academic community which takes no ideological or policy position itself. The responsible academic community welcomes those who do take an ideological or policy position and jealously guards their right to do so. Conflict of ideas cannot occur unless there is opportunity for a variety of viewpoints to be expressed. Toleration of what may be error is an inescapable condition of the meaningful pursuit of truth. The academic community must be hospitable even to closed minds and it must welcome the conflict of ideas likely to ensue. Academic responsibility to provide opportunity for expression of diverse points of view generates academic freedom.

b. Faculty

Faculty members are entitled to full freedom in research and in the publication of results, subject to the adequate performance of their other academic duties. They are also entitled to freedom in lecturing or conducting demonstrations in their subject or field of competence. They are entitled as any other member of the community in which they live to establish membership in voluntary groups, to seek or hold public office, to express their opinions as individual on public questions and to take action in accordance with their views. Cognizant of their responsibilities to their profession and to their institution, faculty accept certain obligations; they should attempt to be accurate, to exercise sound judgment and respect the rights of others to express opinions. They must make clear that their actions, their statements and their memberships do not necessarily represent views of the academic community. If there are controls to be exercised over faculty members, they are the controls of personal integrity and the judgment of their colleagues.

c. Students

Students are entitled to be taught by unfettered teachers and to have access to all information pertinent to their subjects of study. They are entitled to as complete freedom as possible in the selection of their curriculum, teachers, and associates. Moreover, they have a right to intellectual disagreement with their instructors and associates and to question them without fear of recrimination or punishment. They also are entitled to seek the publication of their views, to seek membership in voluntary groups, to seek or hold public office, and to take lawful action in accordance with their views. Students also have the responsibility to make clear that their actions, memberships, and statements do not represent the views of the academic community.

d. Guest Speakers, Movies and Other Programs

A college or university by its very nature cannot pay lip service to the concept of freedom of expression and then deny persons with whom it is in disagreement the opportunity of giving expression to their views. Furthermore, a policy that extends the right of freedom of expression to some persons and denies to the others, places the institution in the position of endorsing the past records and views of those who are given permission to speak. Therefore, a speaker, performer, or program may be presented under the sponsorship of any duly recognized student, faculty, or administrative organization or any individual officer of instruction. It is not necessary that the point of view presented be congenial to the campus, members of the staff or student body individually, or to individual members of the wider community. The speaker must be accorded the courtesy of any uninterrupted presentation. Except for ceremonial occasions, speakers must accept as condition of their appearance the right of their audience to question or challenge statements made in their address. Questions must be permitted from the floor unless prevented by physical limitations, or the size of the audience. The invitation or scheduling of such a program must represent the desire of the institutional sponsor and not the will of external individuals or organizations. The sponsor must establish full responsibility for the program and should help to establish the concept that the point of view expressed in an address or performance does not necessarily represent the position of the academic community. Such presentations must at all times be consistent with the laws of North Dakota and the United States.

See the Events, Demonstrations, Fixed Exhibits, and Short-Term Rentals policy for more information.

C. Notice of Federal Compliance

1. Notice of Annual Security & Fire Safety Report

In compliance with the Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act, the University of North Dakota publishes an Annual Security and Fire Safety Report. The report includes the university's policies, procedures, and programs concerning safety and security, as well as three years' of crime statistics for our campus. As a student, you are entitled to a copy of this report. The report and statistical data can be found online at http://und.edu/discover/\_files/docs/annual-security-report.pdf . You may also request a paper copy of the report from the UND Police Department located at 3851 Campus Road, Grand Forks, ND, 58202.

2. Notice of Title IX and VAWA Compliance

Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (Title IX), and its regulation, prohibit discrimination on the basis of sex and/or gender in education programs and activities operated by recipients of federal financial assistance. Sexual harassment that creates a hostile environment, including sexual assault and other forms of sexual misconduct, is a form of discrimination prohibited by Title IX. The regulation implementing Title IX requires that the University adopt and publish grievance procedures providing a prompt and equitable resolution of complaints that allege any action that would be prohibited by Title IX, including sexual assault, sexual harassment, and other forms of sexual misconduct. Similarly, the Violence Against Women Reauthorization Act of 2013 (VAWA) requires prompt, fair and impartial investigation and resolution of allegations of stalking, dating violence, and domestic violence.

For complaints regarding sexual assault, harassment, or other forms of misconduct UND uses the procedures outlined within the Code and the Title IX and Sexual Violence policy.

3. Notice of Non-Discrimination

The University of North Dakota (UND) is committed to the principle of equal opportunity in education and employment. UND does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national origin, religion, sex, age, disability, sexual orientation, gender identity, genetic information, creed, marital status, veteran's status, political belief or affiliation or any other status protected by law. Pursuant to Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972, UND does not discriminate on the basis of sex in its educational programs and activities, employment and admission. UND will promptly and equitably investigate reports of discrimination or harassment and take disciplinary action as appropriate.

Retaliation in any form against a person who reports discrimination or participates in the investigation of discrimination is strictly prohibited and will be grounds for separate disciplinary action.

The University's policies and procedures for complaints of discrimination or harassment are found at:

- Discrimination and Harassment Policy
- Code of Student Life

Concerns regarding UND's equal opportunity and nondiscrimination policies, including Title IX, Title VI, Title VII, ADA, and Section 504 may be addressed to:

Donna Smith
Assistant Vice President for Equal Opportunity & Title IX

Title IX/ADA Coordinator
Twamley Hall Room 102
264 Centennial Dr Stop 7097
Grand Forks, ND 58202-7097
P: 701.777.4171
UND.EO.TitleIX@UND.edu
donna.smith@UND.edu

A complaint or concern regarding discrimination or harassment may also be sent to the Office for Civil Rights, U.S. Department of Education, 500 West Madison, Suite 1475, Chicago, IL 60611; phone 312.730.1560; fax 312.730.1576; email OCR.Chicago@ed.gov; or any other federal agency.

Attachments

No Attachments

Approval Signatures

Approver	Date
Jennifer Rogers: Policy Office	08/2021
Alex Pokornowski: AVP for SA&D, ADOS/VPSAD PAG Liaison	08/2021

COPY